The Faithful Librarian Garrett B. Trott, 2019-09-06 What do Christianity and librarianship have in common Netherlands Prime Minister and theologian Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 was among the first in the modern era to attempt to rejoin the dichotomy of sacred vs secular study when he said no single piece of our mental world is to be hermetically sealed off from the rest Over the years a number of publications have followed Kuyper's lead yet little has been written on the subject since Greg A Smith's notable Christian Librarianship 2002 Building on Smith's work this volume seeks to bridge the sacred secular divide with an exploration of how Christianity and the gospel are manifested through the profession of librarianship

Science Fiction, Fantasy & Horror, 1991 A comprehensive bibliography of books and short fiction published in the English language Motion Picture Herald, 1927 The Manor Mac Griswold, 2025-09-23 Mac Griswold's The Manor is the biography of a uniquely American place that has endured through wars great and small through fortunes won and lost through histories bright and sinister and of the family that has lived there since its founding as a Colonial New England slave plantation three and a half centuries ago In 1984 the landscape historian Mac Griswold was rowing along a Long Island creek when she came upon a stately yellow house and a garden guarded by looming boxwoods She instantly knew that boxwoods that large twelve feet tall fifteen feet wide had to be hundreds of years old So as it happened was the house Sylvester Manor had been held in the same family for eleven generations Formerly encompassing all of Shelter Island New York a pearl of 8 000 acres caught between the North and South Forks of Long Island the manor had dwindled to 243 acres Still its hidden vault proved to be full of revelations and treasures including the 1666 charter for the land and correspondence from Thomas Jefferson Most notable was the short and steep flight of steps the family had called the slave staircase which would provide clues to the extensive but little known story of Northern slavery Alongside a team of archaeologists Griswold began a dig that would uncover a landscape bursting with stories Based on years of archival and field research as well as voyages to Africa the West Indies and Europe The Manor is at once an investigation into forgotten lives and a sweeping drama that captures our history in all its richness and suffering It is a monumental achievement The Spotlight ,1936 Children's Books and Their Creators Anita Silvey,1995 Unique in its coverage of contemporary American children s literature this timely single volume reference covers the books our children are or should be reading now from board books to young adult novels Enriched with dozens of color illustrations and the voices of authors and illustrators themselves it is a cornucopia of delight 23 color 153 b w illustrations The Call of the Heart Bruce Babington,Charles Barr,2018-11-07 The profusion of research on film history means that there are now few Hollywood filmmakers in the category of Neglected Master John M Stahl 1886 1950 has been stuck in it for far too long His strong association with melodrama and the womans film is a key to this neglect those mainstays of popular cinema are no longer the object of critical scorn or indifference but Stahl has until now hardly benefited from this welcome change in attitude His remarkable silent melodramas were either lost or buried in archives while his major sound films such as Imitation of Life and Magnificent Obsession equally successful in their time have been overshadowed by the glamour of the 1950s remakes by Douglas Sirk Sirk is a far from neglected figure Stahls much longer Hollywood career deserves attention and celebration in its own right as this book definitively shows Drawing on a wide range of film and document archives scholars from three continents come together to cover Stahls work as director and also producer from its beginnings during World War I to his death as a still active filmmaker in 1950 Between them they make a strong case for Stahl as an important figure in cinema history and as author of many films that still have the power to move their audiences The Waking Dream Maria Morris Hambourg,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),1993 The 253 works in the exhibition many of them rare or unique and all of exceptional print quality have been culled from the more than five thousand that comprise the legendary but seldom exhibited Gilman Paper Company Collection the most important private collection of photographs in the world Baz Luhrmann Pam Cook,2019-07-25 This is the first major book length study of the work of Australian film maker Baz Luhrmann one of the most exciting and controversial personalities working in World Cinema today Luhrmann s reputation as an innovator rests on the evidence of the three films known as the Red Curtain Trilogy Strictly Ballroom 1992 William Shakespeare s Romeo Juliet 1996 and Moulin Rouge 2001 which together demonstrate the development of a highly distinctive style and brand Pam Cook who was given unprecedented access to the

Luhrmann private archives explores the genesis of the Red Curtain aesthetic from Luhrmann's early experience in theatre and opera to his collaborative working methods and unique production set up Drawing on in depth interviews with Luhrmann and his chief collaborator designer Catherine Martin she traces the roots of their work in an increasingly globalised Australian film culture investigating the relationship of their company Bazmark to the Hollywood studio Twentieth Century Fox and the influences on their style and production methods At the book's heart are substantial analyses of the spectacular Red Curtain films and the historical epic Australia 2008 This lively and original study of one of contemporary cinema's most fascinating figures will appeal to film scholars cultural historians and Luhrmann enthusiasts alike The Publishers'
