Lenten Reflections Milton E. Lopes, 2014-10-03 This book is written for those among us who have weathered life's storms yet sense a nagging emptiness in their spiritual well being Lenten Reflections From the Desert to the Resurrection is written for those of us who want to be more spiritual It is divided into four parts Part One sets the framework for a treatment of the study of our salvation It is devoted to the historical roots of Lent its purpose and its theology To that end this section also provides the reader with an overview of the creation story a discussion of evil and sin and a summary of the Trinity and the incarnation Part Two sets the stage for an initial reflection on Lent while Part Three introduces the disciplines needed to successfully pass through the desert to spiritual wholeness Four seminal questions are posed Where are we What are we Who are we Why are we Answers to these questions set the stage for what many spiritual masters call the purgative way in which the Twelve Step Program of Alcoholic Anonymous is suggested as a framework to one's first steps into spiritual wholeness At some point in their spiritual journey the reader moves into what these same spiritual masters call the illuminative and unitive ways Part Four is entitled The Agony and Exultation Here we join Jesus on the road to Calvary where he is crucified We know a mysterious joy as he rises from the tomb We end our reflections with his departure from his disciples the coming of the Paraclete and a new understanding of the meaning behind Jesus sacrifice and life on earth

Making Sense of People and Place in Linguistic Landscapes Amiana Peck, Christopher Stroud, Quentin Williams, 2018-10-18 This volume offers comprehensive analyses of how we live continuously in a multiplicity and simultaneity of places It explores what it means to be in place the variety of ways in which meanings of place are made and how relationships to others are mediated through the linguistic and material semiotics of place Drawing on examples of linguistic landscapes LL over the world such as gentrified landscapes in Johannesburg and Brunswick Mozambican memorializations volatile train graffiti in Stockholm Brazilian protest marches Guadeloupian Creole signs microscapes of souvenirs in Guinea Bissau and old landscapes of apartheid in South Africa in contemporary time this book explores how we are what we are through how we are emplaced Across these examples world leading contributors explore how LLs contribute to the reimagining of different selves in the living past living the past in the present alternative presents and imagined futures It focuses particularly on how the LL in all of these mediations is read through emotionality and affect creating senses of belonging precarity and hope across a simultaneous multiplicity of worlds The volume offers a reframing of linguistics landscape research in a geohumanities framework emphasizing negotiations of self in place in LL studies building upon a rich body of LL research With over 40 illustrations it covers various methodological and epistemological issues such as the need for extended temporal engagement with landscapes a mobile approach to landscapes and how bodies engage with texts

Fern Vale ; or the Queensland Squatter Colin Munro, 2011 Has anyone ever heard of Colin Munro let alone Fern Vale Yet this was the first Queensland novel published in London in 1862 The author of Scottish origin was a young mercantile clerk who after five years in Brisbane returned to London to seek a wife and write a book He returned to Brisbane in 1863 to become a storekeeper merchant and Pacific trader He later became a farmer and while pursuing his agrarian dream in Queensland this extraordinary man played out the purpose of his novel Though written as a pastoral romance on the Darling Downs the book's real aim was to attract migrants to the new colony during the optimistic 1860s Taking its cue from the visionary Rev Dr John D Lang of Sydney the novel set in 1856-57 expounds the controversial issues of labour industry and capital as well as the tropical economy land regulation aboriginal policy convict origin and separation from NSW
