Sources for World in the Making: Since 1300 Bonnie G. Smith, Marc Van de Mieroop, Richard Von Glahn, Kris E. Lane, 2018-08-07 Designed to complement World in the Making A Global History this two volume sourcebook gathers together the voices of both notable figures and everyday individuals Compiled by the Bonnie Smith Marc Van Der Mieroop Richard von Glahn and Kris Lane Sources for World in the Making reflects the geographic breadth and key social cultural and political developments covered in each chapter of the parent text Every chapter includes an introduction and approximately six sources representing both major works and fresh perspectives A Contrasting Views feature presents sources with divergent perspectives to foster comparative analysis

Coalition Navies during the Korean War Ian Bowers, 2024-02-13 This book presents a detailed assessment of the role of navies in the Korean War It highlights that despite being predominantly a land war navies played a vital part Moreover the naval war was not solely a U S operation Smaller navies from many countries made important contributions both in supporting the United States and carrying out independent and combined naval operations This subject holds special importance since current Western strategic thinking and capabilities emphasise the necessity of combined naval operations involving multiple navies in any potential future naval conflict The example set by the Korean War therefore offers valuable insights into the operational and strategic problems and benefits and opportunities of contemporary and future combined coalition naval operations

Growing Up America Susan Eckelmann Berghel, Sara Fieldston, Paul M. Renfro, 2019-12-15 Growing Up America brings together new scholarship that considers the role of children and teenagers in shaping American political life during the decades following the Second World War Growing Up America places young people and their representations at the center of key political trends illuminating the dynamic and complex roles played by youth in the midcentury rights revolutions in constructing and challenging cultural norms and in navigating the vicissitudes of American foreign policy and diplomatic relations The authors featured here reveal how young people have served as both political actors and subjects from the early Cold War through the late twentieth century Age of Fracture At the same time Growing Up America contends that the politics of childhood and youth extends far beyond organized activism and the ballot box By unveiling how science fairs breakfast nooks Boy Scout meetings home economics classrooms and correspondence functioned as political spaces this anthology encourages a reassessment of the scope and nature of modern politics itself

Call to Freedom Sterling Stuckey, 2003 Teaches U S history employing the themes geography economics government citizenship science technology and society culture Constitutional heritage and global relations At Sea Against the Soviet Fleet Bryan H. Leese, 2025-10-14 At Sea Against the Soviet Fleet is a history of the evolution of the United States Navy's Operational Intelligence culture that informs great power competition with China today At Sea Against the Soviet Fleet examines the critical transformation of naval intelligence during a pivotal era marked by the Cold War and the Vietnam conflict Bryan Leese meticulously details how U S Navy operational intelligence evolved to meet the complexities of modern naval warfare particularly in response to the increasing threats posed by the Soviet Navy Structured into four main parts this book begins by examining the Vietnam War and the institutionalization of shipboard operational intelligence or what Navy intelligence calls Opintel The book highlights the establishment of Integrated Operational Intelligence Centers as part of the RA 5C Vigilante program and the innovative strategies that emerged in air combat and targeting Leese goes on to underscore the necessity of Opintel to the U S Navy's close and distant blockade strategy in the 1960s and 1970s He delves into the decentralization of intelligence processes emphasizing the importance of adaptability and the need to prevent surprise attacks This evolution is framed within the transition to the Navy's Ocean Surveillance Information System a decentralized and responsive operational intelligence system The ongoing developments of shipboard intelligence capabilities are explored demonstrating how these advancements empowered naval commanders In the 1970s the organizations evolved as the revolutionary Opintel adaptations of the 1960s that leveraged cooperation without hierarchy became formalized Leese highlights the revolution to evolution process by introducing Opintel support to shipboard tactical decisions to integrate operational intelligence into comprehensive naval strategies Capturing the essence of this transformative period the author discusses the cultural dynamics within the Navy that fostered innovation and interdepartmental collaboration These developments not only contributed to maintaining a strategic edge over the Soviet Union but also laid the groundwork for future naval operations in the digital age Leese's work reveals the intricate interplay between technology strategy and personnel in creating an effective intelligence framework that allows the U S Navy to assert influence at sea setting conditions for sea control in conflict By blending rich archival research with firsthand accounts this book offers a nuanced understanding of how the Navy adapted to an ever changing operational landscape ultimately preserving peace while navigating the complexities of high stakes maritime conflict Haunted by Chaos Sulmaan Wasif Khan,2018-07-09 Before the Communists came to power China lay broken Today it is a global force but its leaders are haunted by the past Sulmaan Wasif Khan chronicles the grand strategies that have sought to protect China from aggression and ensure it would never again experience the powerlessness of the late Qing and Republican eras
