Henderson,2021-04-01 Ecological Methods by the late T R E Southwood and revised over the years by P A Henderson has developed into a classic reference work for the field biologist It provides a handbook of ecological methods and analytical techniques pertinent to the study of animals with an emphasis on non microscopic animals in both terrestrial and aquatic environments It remains unique in the breadth of the methods presented and in the depth of the literature cited stretching right back to the earliest days of ecological research The universal availability of R as an open source package has radically changed the way ecologists analyse their data In response Southwood s classic text has been thoroughly revised to be more relevant and useful to a new generation of ecologists making the vast resource of R packages more readily available to the wider ecological community By focusing on the use of R for data analysis supported by worked examples the book is now more accessible than previous editions to students requiring support and ideas for their projects Southwood's Ecological Methods provides a crucial resource for both graduate students and research scientists in applied ecology wildlife ecology fisheries agriculture conservation biology and habitat ecology It will also be useful to the many professional ecologists wildlife biologists conservation biologists and practitioners requiring an authoritative overview of ecological methodology

What is American Literature? Ilan Stavans, 2022 An incisive thought provoking and timely meditation at once panoramic and synoptic on American literature for an age of xenophobia heightened nationalism and economic disparity The distinguished cultural critic Ilan Stavans explores the nation's identity through the prism of its books from the indigenous past to the early settlers the colonial period the age of independence its ascendance as a global power and its shallow fracturing response to the COVID 19 pandemic The central motives that make the United States a flawed experiment its celebration of do it yourself individualism its purported exceptionalism and its constitutional government based on checks and balances are explored through canonical works like Mark Twain's The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn Walt Whitman's Leaves of Grass Emily Dickinson's poetry F Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby the work of Langston Hughes Zora Neale Hurston and Toni Morrison and immigrant voices such as those of Amrico Paredes Henry Roth Saul Bellow Isaac Bashevis Singer Jhumpa Lahiri and others This is literary criticism at its best informed broad ranged yet pungent and uncompromising
