Diamonds on a River of Tears Lr Penn,2009-10 In this stunning work of historical fiction LR Penn has concocted a breathtaking epic adventure that begins in 1890 in a small Zulu village in South Africa but spans three centuries and two continents It is also a personal memoir that tells the story of a family torn apart by a racist totalitarian regime The book examines a series of powerful conflicts the cultural clash between ancient ethnic traditions and encroaching Western values the political battle between the underground resistance movement and the repressive military strength of a modern nation state and stirring personal conflicts as illustrated by the impossibly difficult choices that the novel's heroes are forced to make between the quest for liberation and the pursuit of love between a family's security and a people's freedom Diamonds on a River of Tears presents an in depth portrait of day to day life in a society altogether out of balance playfully juxtaposing its comic absurdities and tragic injustices but ultimately handing down a moral indictment that all of contemporary civilization will have to face

Transformation of Archives and Heritage Education in Post-apartheid South Africa Geraldine Frieslaar,Olusegun Morakinyo,2023-06-10 Although there have been significant strides to transform the demographics of archive and museum personnel develop new museums and heritage institutions and heritage training initiatives in post apartheid South Africa the Eurocentric model of the archive museum and heritage sector has largely remained intact Despite the euphoria around the transformation of heritage in the beginnings of post apartheid South Africa

it can be argued that the transformation of heritage institutions has been superficial and cosmetic with the ideological foundation of the colonial archive and museum as well as Eurocentric modalities of heritage education remaining solid largely unmoved and under continuing challenge This is the thrust of this book which reflects on the transformation of archives and museum and heritage education in South Africa and argues for meaningful transformation of the sector through a decolonisation from its Eurocentric mooring
