Mel Dixon, Kate Murphy, Amy Hughes

Hsc English New Book 2015 16:

Antipodean Antiquities Marguerite Johnson,2019-03-21 Leading and emerging early career scholars in Classical Reception Studies come together in this volume to explore the under represented area of the Australasian Classical Tradition They interrogate the interactions between Mediterranean Antiquity and the antipodean worlds of New Zealand and Australia through the lenses of literature film theatre and fine art Of interest to scholars across the globe who research the influence of antiquity on modern literature film theatre and fine art this volume fills a decisive gap in the literature by bringing antipodean research into the spotlight Following a contextual introduction to the field the six parts of the volume explore the latest research on subjects that range from the Lord of the Rings and Xena Warrior Princess franchises to important artists such as Sidney Nolan and local authors whose work offers opportunities for cross cultural and interdisciplinary analysis with well known Western authors and artists Cambridge Checkpoints HSC Standard English 2017 Mel Dixon,Kate

Murphy,Amy Hughes,2016-06-28 Cambridge Checkpoints HSC Advanced English 2017 Melpomene Dixon,Kate

Murphy,Amy Hughes,2016-06-28 The Routledge Companion to Absurdist Literature Michael Y. Bennett,2024-05-29 The Routledge Companion to Absurdist Literature is the first authoritative and definitive edited collection on absurdist literature As a field defining volume the editor and the contributors are world leaders in this ever exciting genre that includes some of the most important and influential writers of the twentieth century including Samuel Beckett Harold Pinter Edward Albee Eugene Ionesco Jean Genet and Albert Camus Ever puzzling and always refusing to be pinned down this book does not attempt to define absurdist literature but attempts to examine its major and minor players As such the field is indirectly defined by examining its constituent writers Not only investigating the so called Theatre of the Absurd this volume wades deeply into absurdist fiction and absurdist poetry expanding much of our previous sense of what constitutes absurdist literature Furthermore long overdue approximately one third of the book is devoted to marginalized writers black Latin x female LGBTQ and non Western voices Poetry and Pedagogy across the Lifespan Sandra Lee Kleppe,Angela

Sorby,2018-10-08 This book explores poetry and pedagogy in practice across the lifespan Poetry is directly linked to improved literacy creativity personal development emotional intelligence complex analytical thinking and social interaction all skills that are crucial in contemporary educational systems However a narrow focus on STEM subjects at the expense of the humanities has led educators to deprioritize poetry and to overlook its interdisciplinary multi modal potential The editors and contributors argue that poetry is not a luxury but a way to stimulate linguistic experiences that are formally rich and cognitively challenging To learn through poetry is not just to access information differently but also to forge new and different connections that can serve as reflective tools for lifelong learning This interdisciplinary book will be of value to teachers and students of poetry as well as scholars interested in literacy across the disciplines Chinese Heritage Sites and their Audiences Rouran Zhang,2020-03-17 Chinese Heritage Sites and their Audiences provides a Chinese perspective on tourists relationship to heritage Contributing to ongoing debates within heritage and tourism studies the book offers insights into how and why visitors engage with such sites Drawing on interviews with domestic tourists local residents and heritage officials at the World Heritage sites of West Lake Xidi and Hongcun Zhang argues that tourists have agency when they visit heritage sites they are doing cultural social and emotional work whilst also negotiating cultural meanings Providing an examination of the complex interactions between locals and tourists the author then considers how tourists navigate and interpret heritage sites Finally Zhang examines whether the government or locally controlled tourism enterprises are more effective in facilitating meaningful cultural interaction between tourists and locals Overall the book demonstrates the interrelation between tourism and heritage and the tensions that are created when the ways in which sites are used differ from the expectations of UNESCO and national or regional site managers Chinese Heritage Sites and their Audiences pays particular attention to ongoing debates about heritage performances the importance of emotions and the agency of tourists and will thus appeal to academics and students engaged in the study of heritage tourism landscape architecture and anthropology
