History and Approaches to Heritage Studies Phyllis Mauch Messenger, Susan J. Bender, 2019-01-21 This volume contributes to scholarship on the theory and practice of heritage with a focus on pedagogy It is an important collection at the intersection of theory practice and teaching This work intervenes in a broader discourse on the relevance of archaeology in education and the tensions between education for democracy and justice and the skills based economy

Managing Cultural World Heritage UNESCO, 2013-12-31 World Heritage Simon C. Woodward, Louise Cooke, 2022-11-09 World Heritage Concepts Management and Conservation presents an insight into discussions and debates surrounding the UNESCO World Heritage List and the properties on it Since its creation 50 years ago the World Heritage Convention has been lauded as one of the most successful international expressions of cooperation whilst at the same time being widely criticised as producing an overly commercialised and globalised sense of heritage Offering an in depth discussion of both sides of the debate this book explores these issues by discussing the following topics How the World Heritage Convention was conceived and how it is operationalised How the World Heritage concept is currently being used and misused The benefits of inscription perceived and actual existential threats faced by

World Heritage Site managers including climate change urban development overtourism military action and natural disaster

The future of World Heritage as an instrument for conservation and economic development Case studies from a global range of World Heritage Sites are included throughout to showcase some of the successes and also missuses of World Heritage status This book will be of pivotal interest to students and scholars in the fields of tourism heritage archaeology natural resource management and development studies Understanding World Heritage in Asia and the Pacific - N° 35 - The Second Cycle of Periodic Reporting 2010-2012 Kaori Kawakami,2012 World Heritage, Urban Design and Tourism Luna Khirfan,2016-02-11 Urban planners and conservationists in historic cities around the world grapple with the competing interests of conservation urban design and economic and social development This book offers an interdisciplinary approach to the key relationships between heritage conservation city space design and tourism development in historic cities linking theory and practice in a unique way The book offers an investigation of three Middle Eastern historic cities Aleppo Acre and Salt all of which face significant challenges of heritage conservation adaptation to contemporary needs and tourism development It presents practical scenarios for the conservation and design of historic urban spaces and the development of sustainable tourism from the perspective of planners local communities and international tourists The author offers a comparative approach which transcends political strife and provides valuable lessons for the other cities inscribed on UNESCO s World Heritage List especially those in developing countries World Heritage and Human Rights Peter Bille Larsen,2017-11-20 The World Heritage community is currently adopting policies to mainstream human rights as part of a wider sustainability agenda This interdisciplinary book combines a state of the art review of World Heritage policy and practice at the global level with ethnographic case studies from the Asia Pacific region by leading scholars in the field By joining legal reviews anthropology and practitioner experience through in depth case studies it shows the diversity of human rights issues in both natural and cultural heritage sites From site designation to their conservation and management the book explores the various rights issues and analyses the diverse social cultural and legal challenges and responses at both regional and global level Detailed case studies are included from Australia Cambodia China Malaysia Myanmar Nepal the Philippines and Vietnam The book will appeal to both natural and cultural heritage professionals and human rights and heritage scholars and will serve as a useful compendium for courses use allowing students to compare contrast and contextualize different contexts Training handbook for Silk Road heritage guides World Federation of Tourist Guide Associations,World Tourism Organization,Newlands, Rosalind,Wressnig, Felicitas,2016-12-31 Preparing World Heritage Nominations International Centre for the Study of the Preservation and Restoration of Cultural Property,International Council on Monuments and Sites,International Union for Conservation of Nature,UNESCO,2011-12-31 The manual is based on the version of the Operational Guidelines for the Implementation of the World Heritage Convention dated August 2011 and seeks to complement it In particular the manual seeks to support States Parties in implementing the World Heritage

Convention and to provide guidance and knowledge that will help ensure a credible World Heritage List of well managed properties of Outstanding Universal Value it is hoped that the manual will help States Parties to carefully consider the implications of proceeding with World Heritage nominations and take the necessary steps to ensure that the effort is worthwhile for both the conservation of the property and the well being of local communities and other local stakeholders

Archaeological Heritage Conservation and Management Brian J. Egloff, 2019-01-31 Archaeological heritage conservation is all too often highly conflicted Economic interests are often at the forefront of management decision making with heritage values given lesser if any consideration but when heritage places are managed with international principles in mind the sites stand out as evidencing superior outcomes The Politics of World Heritage David Harrison, Michael

Hitchcock, 2005-01-01 This collection of papers discuss World Trade Law and focus on the contested nature of World Heritage at sites as diverse as The Netherlands Ellis Island USA post colonial Mesoamerica Cambodia Fiji Kyrgyzstan and Vietnam In addition eight research notes explore heritage interpretation in the USA Lebanon Peru Indonesia Singapore Tasmania and India
