Forming a Global Community Joseph de Rivera, 2022-10-18 To address global problems such as pandemics warming economic inequality mass migration and widespread terrorism Joseph de Rivera argues that we must form a global community A community of eight billion humans is difficult to conceive However it can be imagined and created if we transform our understanding of who humans are and what community entails We can understand who persons are how they are motivated and how a community can be conceived in a way that offers an alternative to individualism and collectivism The mutualism that is proposed provides a moral compass for navigating the challenges that confront us and encourages specific governing structures political economies and rituals that will further the formation of a global community Based on the philosophical analysis of John Macmurray the author s argument relies on an extensive review of the current literature on self personhood emotional motivation social identity forms of community and religious and secular rituals Interdisciplinary in nature it aims to direct philosophy and the social sciences to the challenges of globalism and the creation of a global community

Women's History in Russia Marianna Muravyeva, Natalia Novikova, 2014-11-19 This collection of essays all by Russian scholars is the first of its kind to address a broad English speaking audience It presents the theories and methodologies employed by Russian national historiography to make sense of Russian gender and women s history The essays in this volume discuss women s and gender history in Russia highlighting sensitive areas in the Russian academic community and in Russian society in general The book appears in the context of an intense backlash against t

UN Peacekeeping Operations and the Protection of Civilians Conor Foley, 2017-09-07 This book is based on the author s experience of working for more than two decades in over thirty conflict and post conflict zones It is written for those involved in UN peacekeeping and the protection of civilians It is intended to be accessible to non lawyers working in the field who may need to know the applicable legal standards relating to issues such as the use of force and arrest and detention powers on the one hand and the delivery of life saving assistance according to humanitarian principles on the other It will also be of interest to scholars and students of peacekeeping international law and international relations on the practical dilemmas facing those trying to operationalise the various conceptions of protection during humanitarian crises in recent years

Transnational Environmental Crime Rob White, 2017-07-05 The essays selected for this volume illustrate the growing interest in and importance of crime that is both environmental and transnational in nature The topics covered range from pollution and waste to biodiversity and wildlife crimes and from the violation of human rights associated with the exploitation of natural resources through to the criminogenic implications of climate change The collection provides insight into the nature and dynamics of this type of crime and examines in detail who is harmed and what can be done about it Differential victimisation and contemporary developments in environmental law enforcement are also considered Collectively these essays lay the foundations for a criminology that is forward looking global in its purview and that deals with the key environmental issues of the present age

Literature and Human Rights Ian Ward, 2015-03-10 The idea of human rights is not new But the importance of taking rights seriously has never been more urgent The eighteen essays which comprise Literature and Human Rights are written as a contribution to this vital debate Each moreover is written in the spirit of interdisciplinarity reaching across the myriad constitutive disciplines of law literature and the humanities in order to present an array of alternative perspectives on the nature and meaning of human rights in the modern world The taking of human rights seriously it will be suggested depends just as much on taking seriously the idea of the human as it does the idea of rights Global Health Diplomacy Ilona Kickbusch, Graham Lister, Michaela Told, Nick Drager, 2012-12-09 The world's problems are indeed world problems social and environmental crises global trade and politics and major epidemics are making public health a pressing global concern From this constantly changing scenario global health diplomacy has evolved at the intersection of public health international relations law economics and management a new discipline with transformative potential Global Health Diplomacy situates this concept firmly within the human rights dialogue and provides a solid framework for understanding global health issues and their negotiation This up to the minute guide sets out defining principles and the current agenda of the field and examines key relationships such as between trade and health diplomacy and between global health and environmental issues The processes of global governance are detailed as the UN WHO and other multinational actors work to address health inequalities among the world's peoples And to ensure maximum usefulness the text includes plentiful examples discussion questions reading lists and a glossary Featured topics include The legal basis of global health agreements and negotiations Global public goods as a foundation for global health diplomacy Global health a human security perspective Health issues and foreign policy at the UN National strategies for global health South south cooperation and other new models of development A volume of immediate utility with a potent vision for the future Global Health Diplomacy is an essential text for public health experts and diplomats as well as schools of public health and international affairs

Why We Are Losing the War on Gun Violence in the United States Marie Crandall, Stephanie Bonne, Jennifer Bronson, Woodie Kessel, 2020-12-09 This edited collection of data and perspectives takes a fresh approach to gun violence prevention by addressing the question why are we losing the war on gun violence in America Although successes and failures in the prevention of gun violence are examined it is a war we are losing due to restrictions on research funding entrenched historical perspectives structural violence and perhaps differing priorities or views on what is right or wrong Gun violence is a public health crisis It remains politicized and has been paralyzed with inaction In the chapters the authors write candidly about the challenges that have thwarted gun violence prevention as well as highlight possible strategies for progress to save lives Critical areas explored among the chapters include Gun Violence Structural Violence and Social Justice School Shootings Creating Safer Schools Mental Illness and Gun Violence Understanding the Political Divide in Gun Policy Support The Second Amendment and the War on Guns The Impact of Policy and Law Enforcement Strategies on Reducing Gun Violence in America Youth Gun Violence Prevention Organizing Smart Guns Don't Kill People With this compendium the editors and authors hope to bridge the growing gap between groups or ideologies and create common ground to discuss workable solutions Why We Are Losing the War on Gun Violence in the United States is essential reading for a broad audience including practitioners academics researchers students policy makers and other professionals in public health behavioral sciences including social work and psychology social sciences health sciences public policy political science and law as well as any readers interested in the path

What is Colonialism? Patrick Colm Hogan, 2023-11-30 What is Colonialism develops a clear and rigorous account of what colonialism is and how it works It draws on and synthesizes recent work in cognitive science affective science and social psychology along with Marxism and related forms of analysis Hogan begins with some fundamental conceptual distinctions such as the degree to which a group shares beliefs dispositions and skills versus the degree to which they share identification with a category Building on these distinctions he defines colonialism in terms of political economic and cultural autonomy clarifying the nature of culture and autonomy particularly He goes on to articulate an invaluable systematic account of the varieties of colonialism The final chapters outline the motives of imperialists differentiating these from their ideological rationalizations and sketching the harms caused by colonialism The book concludes by considering when or if one can achieve a genuinely postcolonial condition Hogan illustrates these analyses by examining influential literary works by European writers such as Joseph Conrad and by non Europeans such as Athol Fugard Kamala Markandaya and Wole Soyinka This accessible and informative volume is the ideal resource for students and scholars interested in colonialism and empire

Right to Development and Illicit Financial Flows from Africa Serges Djoyou Kamga, Gerard Emmanuel Kamdem Kamga, Arnold Kwesiga, 2024-02-15 Gerard Emmanuel Kamdem Kamga Serges Djoyou Kamga and Arnold Kwesiga explore a relatively new phenomenon namely referred to as illicit financial flows that aim to impoverish the African continent and prevent its economic development There is a direct relationship between illicit financial flows and failed initiatives to realize the right to development on the continent For instance in 2016 Africa received 41 billion towards public development while 50 billion left the continent through illicit financial flows The gap between recent economic achievements on the continent and its state of generalized underdevelopment coupled with rampant poverty corruption prolonged economic crisis and political instabilities signals an issue with resource allocations The systematic theft of resources by multinational corporations and criminal networks is a hard blow to the idea of people driven development in line with the Pan African vision of an integrated prosperous and peaceful Africa proclaimed by Agenda 2063 Right to Development and Illicit Financial Flows from Africa Dynamics Perspectives and Prospects provides insights into the dynamics and perspectives on illicit financial flows and its dire impacts on the right to development and development initiatives across the continent

Ethics and Professionalism J. S. H. Gildenhuys, 2004-01-01 Immoral unethical conduct of politicians and public officials is a global scourge of the present day The South African government is leading the battle against corruption in the public sector and it must be supported by officials educated to recognise and enabled to combat every appearance of this pestilence Ethics and Professionalism is essential equipment for such education Having been constructed on the principles of knowledge progression and outcomes based education it sets out explaining the meaning of ethics and its importance for public officials
