Inside The Circle Harloff:

I'm Possible Richard Antoine White, 2025-10-16 Powerful equal parts heartwarming and heart wrenching White is a gifted storyteller Washington Post From the streets of Baltimore to the halls of the New Mexico Philharmonic a musician shares his remarkable story in I'm Possible an inspiring memoir of perseverance and possibility Young Richard Antoine White and his mother don't have a key to a room or a house Sometimes they have shelter but they never have a place to call home Still they have each other and Richard believes he can look after his mother even as she struggles with alcoholism and sometimes disappears sending Richard into loops of visiting familiar spots until he finds her again And he always does until one night when he almost dies searching for her in the snow and is taken in by his adoptive grandparents Living with his grandparents is an adjustment with rules and routines but when Richard joins band for something to do he unexpectedly discovers a talent and a sense of purpose Taking up the tuba feels like something he can do that belongs to him and playing music is like a light going on in the dark Soon Richard gains acceptance to the prestigious Baltimore School for the Arts and he continues thriving in his musical studies at the Peabody Conservatory and beyond even as he navigates racial and socioeconomic disparities as one of few Black students in his programs With fierce determination Richard pushes forward on his remarkable path eventually securing a coveted spot in a symphony orchestra and becoming the first African American to earn a doctorate in music for tuba performance A professor mentor and motivational speaker Richard now shares his extraordinary story of dreaming big impossible dreams and making them come true

An Age in Motion Takashi Shiraishi, 1990 Takashi Shiraishi examines the emergence of an Indonesian national consciousness during the first quarter of this century when Indonesians began to view their world in a new way to articulate this new consciousness in modern forms and to believe that these expressions could have a political effect

The Lion and the Gadfly Paul van der Veur, 2021-12-28 This political biography reveals the turbulent life of Ernest François Eugène Douwes Dekker son of a Dutch father and a German Javanese mother born on Java in 1879 Vignettes flow in novel like fashion from the battle fields of South Africa and internment camp in Sri Lanka to a career in journalism in Java Radical thoughts then enter Douwes Dekker's mind such as demands for racial equality and national independence These made him write presciently that this road might take him to the executioner's hand or to the victory of revolution In exile from 1913 on his bravado allowed him to enter a doctoral program at the University of Zurich but also to entanglement with Indian revolutionaries operating from Berlin Returning to Java at the end of World War I he once again propagated the virtues of nationalism but soon was forced to relinquish his efforts and start a teaching career Even here constant surveillance and eventual internment in Surinam were his lot Within a decade the Republic of Indonesia had been proclaimed and Douwes Dekker emerged to acclaim as a close friend and political adviser to President Soekarno Service World International, 1974 A Veil of Footsteps Breyten Breytenbach, 2008 The main character and narrator the nomad Breyten Wordfool takes the reader on a journey on many journeys through his own history and the places where he lives and works and regularly visits Paris Spain Gore Senegal Cape Town New York Vietnam This should be kept in mind as I write Breyten Wordfool's black book of impressions One must not let go of the memories maggots and grubs are always needed to transform that which has been lived Memories and impressions of real events being arrested in 1975 at Johannesburg airport for alleged terrorist activities witnessing the attack on the World Trade Centre in New York in 2001 are alternated by surrealistic fantasies dreamlike sequences philosophical thoughts fictions He reports angrily lyrically humorously daringly on our troubled times Of Africa he says impossible to rationally get hold of in all its complexity horror madness and beauty No understanding except through invention And this is Breyten Breytenbach's achievement that he can use his inventive powers and imagination to illuminate life in all its horror and beauty To force us to observe equally with indignation and wonder
