

Hook (~25 words) - Optional:

Capture the reader's attention and give a preview of what's to come.

It can be terrifying to take a risk and do the unexpected.

Context (125-150 words):

Provide some background about yourself and discuss who you were and what you believed in before this obstacle occurred. State what the obstacle (challenge, setback, or failure) was. Paint the picture of the situation you were in, focusing on the emotions you felt when this obstacle occurred as well as your initial reaction.

I have always admired my mother and father for their hard work and passion for helping others. After we immigrated to the US when I was 7 years old, my parents set some pretty high expectations for me. Both of them are cardiac surgeons, and they assumed that I would follow in their footsteps. I always thought I would go into medicine too — after all they had done so much for me and I couldn't disappoint them.

My father suggested that I volunteer at our local hospital so I could get a feel for the demands of being a doctor. It took less than a week of working there for me to realize that a career in medicine was the complete opposite of what I was supposed to do with my life. This realization was a huge setback that I never anticipated, and it sent my mind spiraling. I remember feeling so anxious that I was shaking and hyperventilating. "What will happen when my parents find out?" I thought. "Should I just do what they want at the expense of my own happiness?". That's when I also realized that, if I wasn't going to go into medicine, what was I going to do instead? My whole world was turned upside down.

Catalyst (75-100 words):

Talk about the turning point, addressing how you faced the obstacle and what you did to resolve it. Discuss any trial and error moments that occurred. Go through your journey to solve this problem.

After struggling for weeks, feeling like a failure and a disappointment to my family, I reluctantly told them the truth, holding my breath waiting for the argument to ensue. After their initial shock wore off, they were calm and told me that all they wanted was for me to be happy. Tears of joy (and relief!) flooded, and I got the motivation I needed to find the path that would make me happy. My new life had begun.

I had always been interested in advertising and marketing, and loved flexing my creativity and communication skills to think about catchy ways to make people interested in something. I was already the social media coordinator for a club at my high school and was interested in exploring this interest further.
