Fiji, 1997 International Education Daniel Ness, Chia-Ling Lin, 2015-03-17 This encyclopedia is the most current and exhaustive reference available on international education. It provides thorough up to date coverage of key topics, concepts and issues as well as in depth studies of approximately 180 national educational systems throughout the world. Articles examine education broadly and at all levels from primary grades through higher education, formal to informal education, country studies to global organizations. Forum, 1989 Learning Together Fiji Islands Education Commission/Panel, 2000 Secondary Education in Fiji Helen Tavola, 1991 Perspectives on Multigrade Teaching Linley Cornish, Matshidiso Joyce Taole, 2021-10-25 This book contains the results of research projects carried out in relation to multigrade teaching in Australia and South Africa. Research in multigrade contexts is not commonly reported and rarely in book form. The research results have implications for multigrade teachers, government education personnel and university teacher educators. The book also contains chapters with practical advice for multigrade teachers including examples of multigrade teaching used in an Australian seven grade class, kindergarten to grade 6. Other chapters contain suggestions for practical strategies a multigrade teacher can use to reduce the workload involved in planning for multiple grades. Very little is published in the area of multigrade teaching yet the number of multigrade schools worldwide is huge. Developed countries still have a significant proportion of multigrade schools, commonly one fifth to one third of all primary schools or classes. Despite decades of centralisation of schools and expansion of transport networks, the number of these schools remains high, mostly in rural areas. Developing countries established multigrade schools in rural areas in order to achieve the UN Millennium Development Goal of Universal Primary Education. Yet specific training to teach a multigrade class remains virtually non-existent in initial teacher education programs worldwide. The value of this book is thus to report specific research carried out in multigrade contexts but also to provide practical help for multigrade teachers. This help is needed as the teachers strive to achieve the UN Sustainable Development Goal of a quality education through helping their students develop the skills and behaviours required for 21st century learning. Science Education in Context Richard K. Coll, Neil Taylor, 2019-02-18 This book presents an international perspective of the influence of educational context on science education. The focus is on the interactions between curriculum development and implementation, particularly in non-Western and non-English speaking contexts, i.e. outside the UK, USA, Australia, NZ, etc. An important and distinguishing feature of the book is that it draws upon the experiences and research from local experts from an extremely diverse cohort across the world, 26 countries in total. The book addresses topics such as curriculum development, research or evaluation of an implemented curriculum, discussion of pressures driving curriculum reform or implementation of new curricula, e.g. technology or environmental education, the influence of political, cultural, societal or religious mores on education, governmental or ministerial drives for curriculum reform, economic or other pressures driving curriculum reform, the influence of external
