Nafukho, Frederick Muya, Boniface Makulilo, Alexander, 2021-03-19 A robust manufacturing sector is a necessity and a sufficient condition for any country's human and economic development as it creates employment and alleviates poverty. During this Fourth Industrial Revolution era, there is an urgent need in Africa to optimally utilize the existing resources to support manufacturing or else risk allowing the continent to fall behind in the industrial economy. Innovative strategies are needed that can unlock Africa's manufacturing potential by exploring key areas that may help Africa mature and launch modernized economies that will benefit the developed world's industrial economy. The Handbook of Research on Nurturing Industrial Economy for Africa's Development examines various innovations necessary for Africa's economic development, including drivers of the manufacturing economy such as education, agriculture, human capital, science and technological innovations, language, politics and business environments. The book explores strategies to increase Africa's economic diversity, complexity, productivity and ultimately competitiveness and for the continent to realize its manufacturing industrial potential. Further chapters focus on African countries' industrial economies in the African context and facilitating the fulfillment of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and the African Union's Agenda 2063. This book is a valuable reference tool for government officials, economists, industrialists, practitioners, stakeholders, researchers, academicians and students interested in the industrial economic development of Africa. The Palgrave Handbook of Small Arms and Conflicts in Africa

Usman A. Tar, Charles P. Onwurah, 2021-04-05 This handbook provides critical analyses of the theory and practices of small arms proliferation and its impact on conflicts and organized violence in Africa. It examines the terrains, institutions, factors and actors that drive armed conflict and arms proliferation and further explores the nature, scope and dynamics of conflicts across the continent as well as the extent to which these conflicts are exacerbated by the proliferation of small arms. The volume features rich analyses by contributors who are acquainted with and widely experienced in the formal and informal structures of arms proliferation and control and their repercussions on violence, instability and insecurity across Africa. The chapters dissect the challenges of small arms and light weapons in Africa with a view to understanding roots, causes and drivers and generating a fresh body of analyses that adds value to the existing conversation on conflict management and peacebuilding in Africa With contributions from scholars development practitioners defence and security professionals and civil society activists the handbook seeks to serve as a reference for students researchers and policy makers on small arms proliferation control and regulation defence and security practitioners and those involved in countering violence and managing conflicts in Africa
