African Virtues in the Pursuit of Conviviality Gebre, Yntiso Gebre, Yntiso, Itaru Ohta, 2017-02-23 African societies have rich histories cultural heritages knowledge systems philosophies and institutions that they have shaped and reshaped through history However the continent has been repeatedly portrayed negatively as plagued by multitudinous troubles famine conflict coup massacres corruption disease illiteracy refugees failed state etc Even worse Africans are often viewed as incapable of addressing their problems on their own Based on such erroneous perspectives and paternalism exogenous solutions are prescribed out of context for African problems This book sheds light on the positive aspects of African reality under the key concept of African potentials It is the product of sustained consultation over a five year period between seasoned African and Japanese anthropologists sociologists and scholars in other areas of African studies

Young Entrepreneurs in Sub-Saharan Africa Katherine V. Gough, Thilde Langevang, 2016-03-02 Young people in sub Saharan Africa are growing up in rapidly changing social and economic environments which produce high levels of un and underemployment Job creation through entrepreneurship is currently being promoted by international organizations governments and NGOs as a key solution despite there being a dearth of knowledge about youth entrepreneurship in an African context This book makes an important contribution by exploring the nature of youth entrepreneurship in Ghana Uganda and Zambia It provides new insights into conceptual and methodological discussions of youth entrepreneurship as well as presenting original empirical data Drawing on quantitative and qualitative research conducted under the auspices of a collaborative interdisciplinary and comparative research project it highlights the opportunities and challenges young people face in setting up and running businesses Divided into a number of clear sections each with its own introduction and conclusion the book considers the nature of youth entrepreneurship at the national level in both urban and rural areas in specific sectors including mobile telephony mining handicrafts and tourism and analyses how key factors such as microfinance social capital and entrepreneurship education affect youth entrepreneurship New light is shed on the multi faceted nature of youth entrepreneurship and a convincing case is presented for a more nuanced understanding of the term entrepreneurship and the situation faced by many African youth today This book will be of interest to a wide range of scholars interested in youth entrepreneurship including in development studies business studies youth studies and geography as well as to development practitioners and policy makers The Open Access title has now been added to the Open Access page <http://www.tandfebooks.com/page/openaccess> MEDINFO 2015: EHealth-enabled Health I.N. Reduce Graduate Unemployment seeks to expand understanding of the barriers that face graduates in becoming entrepreneurs in various countries examining the role of educational institutions in promoting graduate entrepreneurship and evaluating governments as well as other schemes that promote graduate entrepreneurship. Although it will not be a panacea for all the obstacles that impede graduate entrepreneurship, it is hoped that this book will illuminate the entrepreneurship career path, serve as a platform for further diagnosis for reducing graduate unemployment, and highlight areas in need of further research. Covering topics such as entrepreneurial self-efficacy, career choice, and educated unemployment, it serves as a dynamic resource for educators, educational administration, and faculty government institutions: graduate students, student organizations, professionals, researchers, and academicians. Supporting Entrepreneurship and Innovation Janet Crum, Samantha Schmehl Hines, 2019-04-29. Libraries have recently begun doing more to support entrepreneurship and innovation within their communities. This volume explores how this has come about, looking at libraries from across North America, Europe, and Africa, and helps position readers to better understand what is happening and how this can be brought to further institutions. Lugalla: Rethinking Teacher Education, 2023-06-27. Rethinking Teacher Education Improvement, Innovation, and Change is the result of the conference organised by The Aga Khan University Institute for Educational Development East Africa (AKU IED EA) on education in Uganda in 2017. The Conference gathered participants from nine countries to deliberate on a cross-section of factors regarding teacher education in the region and landscaping the same on global perspectives. The choice of the conference theme was inspired by a need to consider new systems, policies, structures, and reforms to help drive sustainable education for the development of nations in the East African region. A variety of contributors participated from across the education landscape and included researchers working in higher education, practitioners such as teachers in schools, tutors, instructors in colleges, and lecturers and professors at universities. Also contributing were non-governmental organisations with interests in education and student learning outcomes, civil society organisations whose interests navigate the role education plays in social and national development, policy makers, and curriculum developers, librarians, publishers, booksellers, and teacher trainees, all of whom shared their rich experiences and perspectives on teacher education in the 21st century in East Africa and globally. Tourism Destination Management in a Post-Pandemic Context Vanessa GB Gowreesunkar, Shem Wambugu Maingi, Hiran Roy, Roberto Micera, 2021-06-11. Drawing from lessons of the COVID-19 pandemic, Tourism Destination Management in a Post-Pandemic Context presents cases and competencies to advance theoretical and empirical knowledge in the management of destinations post-pandemic.

Restoration and Philosophy J. Caleb Clanton, 2024-01-12. A product of the Second Great Awakening of the nineteenth century, the Stone-Campbell Restoration Movement gave rise to such denominations as the Church of Christ (a cappella), the Christian Church, Disciples of Christ, and the independent Christian Churches of Christ. While scholars have examined many of the historical, ecclesial, socio-cultural, and biographical dimensions of this indigenously American religious tradition few have singled it out for philosophical exploration and critique In Restoration and Philosophy editor J Caleb Clanton and a team of philosophers engage with the Stone Campbell Restoration tradition to address issues related to epistemology philosophy of science philosophy of religion moral philosophy aesthetics environmentalism and race Along the way the authors help to contextualize the Stone Campbell Restoration tradition within American religious history and within Christian philosophy more generally and they show its continuing relevance today Scholars and students of philosophy and religious studies as well as ministers and those interested in this uniquely American Christian tradition will benefit from this carefully edited thoroughly researched and highly readable collection of essays by eminent philosophers and religious scholars
