Making the Impossible Possible Kim S. Cameron, Marc Lavine, 2006-08-13 Lessons from the cleanup of America's most dangerous nuclear weapons plant Making the Impossible Possible Yohei Sasakawa, 2023-08-01 Leprosy is a chronic infectious disease that mainly affects the skin and peripheral nerves Left untreated it can cause progressive and permanent disability But a diagnosis of leprosy can have consequences that go far beyond the disease's physical manifestations The age old stigma associated with leprosy can result in severe social discrimination that robs people of opportunities in life and condemns them to society's margins This book is the most detailed account yet of Yohei Sasakawa's quest over two decades as WHO Goodwill Ambassador for Leprosy Elimination to work for a world without leprosy and the discrimination it causes It chronicles his travels to remote communities around the world to hear directly from those affected by the disease as well as his meetings with policy makers government leaders and heads of state to advocate for renewed commitment to the fight against leprosy including measures to protect the human rights of those it affects While much progress has been made completing the last mile in leprosy eradication is the hardest part of the journey Making the Impossible Possible highlights the author's unflagging resolve to ensure that all involved stay the course

Making the Impossible Possible Daisaku Ikeda, 2022-05-01 Few believed it could happen Most dismissed it as fantasy But when Josei Toda in 1951 revealed his grand vision to grow the Soka Gakkai in Japan from a membership of a mere three thousand to a membership 750 000 households strong one young disciple vowed to make it happen Daisaku Ikeda soon took the lead and over the course of six years and six major campaigns he blazed the trail for the unprecedented growth of a people's movement for peace He cared for and inspired each person he met along the way and soon thousands united with him and his mentor helping person after person overcome their struggles and find true happiness These are not only inspiring stories from the past but lay out a formula so that we in our present and future can turn our impossibilities into possibilities

Stupid Stephen M. Shapiro, 2011-09-29 What if almost everything you know about creating a culture of innovation is wrong What if the way you are measuring innovation is choking it What if your market research is asking all of the wrong questions It s time to innovate the way you innovate Stephen Shapiro is one of America s foremost innovation advisors whose methods have helped organizations like Staples GE Telefonica NASA the U S Air Force and USAA He teaches his clients that innovation isn t just about generating occasional new ideas it s about staying consistently one step ahead of the competition Hire people you don t like Bring in the right mix of people to unleash your team s full potential Asking for ideas is a bad idea Define challenges more clearly If you ask better questions you will get better answers Don t think outside the box find a better box Instead of giving your employees a blank slate provide them with well defined parameters that will increase their creative output Failure is always an option Looking at innovation as a series of experiments allows you to redefine failure and learn from your results Shapiro shows that nonstop innovation is attainable and vital to building a high performing team improving the bottom line and staying ahead of the pack

The Ethics of Hospitality Helen T. Boursier, 2019-02-15 Set against an ethical theological philosophical framework of the role of love in the Abrahamic tradition Islam Judaism and Christianity The Ethics of Hospitality highlights the personal witness of refugee families seeking asylum from the Northern Triangle in Central America to the U S Their heart wrenching stories include why they fled their homelands their experiences along the arduous overland journey and their inhospitable reception when they arrived to the U S and requested asylum It includes an overview of the systemic connections between the U S and the violence which catapults these families to seek safety The voices of the families join the witness of interreligious volunteers of greater San Antonio who assist the refugee families in diverse capacities and who testify to the mutual blessing they receive when love of God expressed as love of neighbor becomes central to the immigration conversation Ultimately the proposal is that the interreligious community has the privilege and responsibility to respond in love with refugees seeking asylum while also leading the outcry in the public square for their radical welcome
