

A low-angle photograph of a modern building with a glass facade. The building's surface is composed of large, rectangular glass panels held together by a grid of dark metal frames. The sky in the background is a deep blue, filled with soft, white clouds. The lighting suggests a bright, sunny day, with the sun's rays creating a subtle lens flare effect on the left side of the image. The overall composition is dynamic, with the building's lines leading the eye towards the top right corner.
