The Dramatic Art of Athol Fugard Albert Wertheim, 2000 Albert Wertheim's study of Fugard's plays is both extremely insightful and beautifully written a book that held my attention from beginning to end It was a pleasure to read Wertheim succeeds in communicating the greatness of Fugard as a playwright actor and director He also conveys well what Fugard has learned from other plays and dramatists Thus he places Fugard's works not so much in a South African context as in a theatrical context He also illuminates his interpretations with the help of Fugard's manuscripts previously available only in South Africa This book is aimed not only at teachers students scholars and performers of Fugard but also at the person who simply loves going to see a Fugard play at the theatre Nancy Topping Bazin Eminent Scholar and Professor Emeritus Old Dominion University Considered one of the most brilliant powerful and theatrically astute of modern dramatists South African playwright Athol Fugard is best known for

The Blood Knot MASTER HAROLD and the boys A Lesson from Aloes and Sizwe Bansi Is Dead The energy and poignancy of Fugard s work have their origins in the institutionalized racism of his native South Africa and more recently in the issues facing a new South Africa after apartheid In The Dramatic Art of Athol Fugard Albert Wertheim analyzes the form and content of Fugard s dramas showing that they are more than a dramatic chronicle of South African life and racial problems Beginning with the specifics of his homeland Fugard s plays reach out to engage more far reaching issues of human relationships race and racism and the power of art to evoke change The Dramatic Art of Athol Fugard demonstrates how Fugard s plays enable us to see that what is performed on stage can also be performed in society and in our lives how inverting Shakespeare Athol Fugard makes his stage the world AF Press Clips ,1982 Voices of Justice and Reason

Geoffrey V. Davis,2021-10-25 Over the past fifty years transformations of great moment have taken place in South Africa Apartheid and the subsequent transition to a democratic non racial society in particular have exercised a profound effect on the practice of literature This study traces the development of literature under apartheid then seeks to identify the ways in which writers and theatre practitioners are now facing the challenges of a new social order The main focus is on the work of black writers prime among them Matsemela Manaka Mtutuzeli Matshoba and Richard Rive who as politically committed members of the oppressed majority bore witness to the black experience through their writing Despite the draconian censorship system they were able to address the social problems caused by racial discrimination in all areas of life particularly through forced removals the migrant labour system and the creation of the homelands Their writing may be read both as a comprehensive record of everyday life under apartheid and as an alternative cultural history of South Africa Particular attention is paid to theatre as a barometer of social change in South Africa The concluding chapters consider how in the current period of transition writers and arts institutions have set about reassessing their priorities redefining their function and seeking new aesthetic directions in taking up the challenge of imagining a new society AF Press Clips
