

The background of the slide is a stylized, abstract image. It features a white, undulating surface that resembles a landscape or a large sheet of paper. This surface is bordered by jagged, red, torn-paper-like edges. Scattered across the white surface are several small, dark, rectangular objects that look like electronic components or circuit boards. In the bottom right corner, there is a small circular logo with the word "SOURCE" inside it, and a small 3D object resembling a circuit board or a component is placed on top of the logo.
