Linda Darling-Hammond,Dion Burns,Carol Campbell,A. Lin Goodwin,Karen Hammerness,Ee-Ling Low,Ann McIntyre,Mistilina Sato,Ken Zeichner,2017-04-03 Discover how high performing systems shape teaching quality around the world Producing highly skilled and committed teachers is not the work of a single innovative school or the aggregation of heroic individuals who succeed against the odds In high performing countries the opportunities for teachers to learn sophisticated practices and continue to improve are embedded systemically in education policies and practices Empowered Educators describes how this seemingly magical work is done how a number of forward thinking educational systems create a coherent set of policies designed to ensure quality teaching in all communities and how the results are manifested in practice Spanning three continents and five countries Empowered Educators examines seven jurisdictions that have worked to develop comprehensive teaching policy systems Singapore and Finland the states of New South Wales and Victoria in Australia the provinces of Alberta and Ontario in Canada and the province of Shanghai in China Renowned education expert Linda Darling Hammond and a team of esteemed scholars offer lessons learned in a number of areas that shape the teaching force and the work of teachers shedding unprecedented light on areas such as teacher recruitment preparation induction and mentoring professional learning career and leadership development and more Find out how quality teaching is developed and conducted across the globe Discover a common set of strategies for developing supporting and sustaining the ongoing learning and development of teachers and school leaders See how high performing countries successfully recruit and train educators Understand why the sharing of expertise among teachers and administrators within and across schools is beneficial A fascinating read for researchers policymakers administrators teacher educators pre service teachers and leaders and anyone with an interest in education this book offers a rare glimpse into the systems that are shaping quality teaching around the world

Nordic Superintendents: Agents in a Broken Chain Lejf Moos, Elisabet Nihlfors, Jan Merok Paulsen, 2015-12-11 This book analyses the superintendent position and relations and shows how the well known policy umbrella the New Public Management NPM is being adapted to national contexts School superintendents are civil servants at the heart of the governance of municipal education Educational governance in the Nordic countries Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden is currently undergoing comprehensive restructuring and reconceptualisation at the hands of national governments influenced by transnational agencies Our analyses of the superintendent position and relations show that the well known policy umbrella the New Public Management NPM is moving towards focusing on soft governance and social technologies as the preferred means of influences Thus we rename it New Public Governance NPG

To Kill Rasputin Andrew Cook, 2011-10-21 The murder of Rasputin on the night of 17 December 1916 has always seemed extraordinary first he was poisoned then shot and finally drowned in a frozen river by Russian aristocrats fearful of his influence on Tsar Nicholas II and Tsarina Alexandra

Every Monument Will Fall Dan Hicks, 2025-05-01 An extraordinary intervention If you want to understand the stakes and the limitations of contemporary conflict over culture and colonial history this bold provocative book is an indispensable resource Paul Gilroy founding Director of the Sarah Parker Remond Centre for the Study of Race and Racism at UCL Hicks must read book describes how it was possible for a human skull to be made into a drinking cup and used in a genteel Oxford college well into the 21st century as if empire were an eternal state of nature Read it to learn new ways to be anti racist abolitionist and to tell other stories than those commemorated by the monuments that surround us from statues to museums and the police Nicholas Mirzoeff author of White Sight Brave and clear sighted Hicks opens up an extraordinary conversation between the past and the present This is a book about falling statues but so much more It s about how we ve been lied to and how we can approach the past with honesty Hicks asks whether history and archaeology should be used to justify actions we know impinge on the rights of others or to understand ourselves better Alice Roberts bestselling author of Crypt Dan Hicks writes with grace and fierce focus about what we choose to remember and why in our patterns of thought our institutions and the built environment in which we live Eyal Weizman director of Forensic Architecture The culture war is over If you want it to be It wasn t even a culture war it was a war on culture A sustained attack Dan Hicks argues in the form of the weaponisation of civic museums public art and even universities and one that has a deeper history than you might think Tracing the origins of contemporary conflicts over art heritage memory and colonialism Every Monument Will Fall joins the dots between the building of statues the founding of academic disciplines like archaeology and anthropology and the warehousing of stolen art and human skulls in museums including the one in which he is a curator Part history part biography part excavation the story runs from the Yorkshire wolds to the Crimean War from southern Ireland to the frontline of the American Civil War from the City of London to the University of Oxford revealing enduring legacies of militarism slavery racism and white supremacy hardwired into the heart of our cultural institutions Every Monument Will Fall offers an urgent reappraisal of how we think about culture and how to find hope remembrance and reconciliation in the fragments of an unfinished violent past Refusing to choose between pulling down every statue or living in a past that we can never change the book makes the case for allowing monuments to fall once in a while even those that are hard to see as monuments rebuilding a memory culture that is in step with our times
