World Education Encyclopedia Rebecca Marlow-Ferguson, Chris Lopez, 2002 This country by country survey of educational systems provides detailed essays on the histories legal foundations and primary and secondary educational systems of 233 countries This updated and expanded edition gives users up to date coverage of reorganized educational systems and high interest topics such as technological advances International Health and Aid Policies

Jean-Pierre Unger, Pierre De Paepe, Kasturi Sen, Werner Soors, 2010-09-23 International health and aid policies of the past two decades have had a major impact on the delivery of care in low and middle income countries This book argues that these policies have often failed to achieve their main aims and have in fact contributed to restricted access to family medicine and hospital care Presenting detailed evidence and illustrated by case studies this book describes how international health policies to date have largely resulted in expensive health care for the rich and disjointed and ineffective services for the poor As a result large segments of the population world wide continue to suffer from unnecessary casualties pain and impoverishment International Health and Aid Policies arms health professionals researchers and policy makers with strategies that will enable them to bridge the gaps between public health medicine and health policy in order to support robust comprehensive and accessible health care systems in any political environment

Women's Access to Higher Education in Africa Joy C. Kwesiga, 2002 This book addresses the gender divide in access to higher education and the Ugandan situation It examines theories of girls education human capital gender inequality and gender development bringing views from Africa and its institutions to debates often constructed and conducted in the West Whilst commending the work of women s movements and NGO s in furthering the educational cause it criticises fashionable neo liberal economic educational policies which are diverting researchers not institutions thus diminishing local universities and women The volume also presents the results of a survey of female undergraduates at the University of Makerere which give rise to discussions about family societal and institutional influences on women s access to higher education This is a welcome book on women in higher education written by an African female academic insider and popular and outstanding contributor to the progress of women in higher education in East Africa Government White Paper on Implementation of the Recommendations of the Report of the Education Policy Review Commission Entitled "Education for National Integration and Development".

Uganda,1992 Thirty Years of Public Sector Reforms in Africa Paulos Chanie,Paschal B. Mihyo,2013 Over the past three decades African countries have been reforming their public sector with a view to improving efficiency effectiveness accountability and transparency as part of efforts to improve the delivery of public services Reform actions have included privatisation public private partnerships commercialisation and adoption of private sector approaches in managing public organisations This book put together by OSSREA reviews measures by African countries in that regard the extent to which the measures have achieved their intended results as well as the factors behind the failure to achieve those results where this was the case Annual Report Rockefeller Foundation,2002 Cumulated Index Medicus ,1998 Africa Health ,2001
