The Labor of Lunch Jennifer E. Gaddis, 2019-11-12 There is a problem with school lunch in America Big Food companies have largely replaced the nation's school cooks by supplying cafeterias with cheap precooked hamburger patties and chicken nuggets chock full of industrial fillers Yet it is no secret that meals cooked from scratch with nutritious locally sourced ingredients are better for children workers and the environment So why not empower lunch ladies to do more than just unbox and reheat factory made food And why not organize together to make healthy ethically sourced free school lunches a reality for all children The Labor of Lunch aims to spark a progressive movement that will transform food in American schools and with it the lives of thousands of low paid cafeteria workers and the millions of children they feed By providing a feminist history of the US National School Lunch Program Jennifer E Gaddis recasts the humble school lunch as an important and often overlooked form of public care Through vivid narration and moral heft The Labor of Lunch offers a stirring call to action and a blueprint for school lunch reforms capable of delivering a healthier more equitable caring and sustainable future

Fallow Lands of Plenty Eric Klein, 2023-05-01 Can public schools feed themselves That deceptively simple question is like a fingernail picking at a fray in the fabric of 21st century public education Fallow Lands of Plenty chronicles one high school's attempt to feed itself and in doing so unravels the fabric of neoliberal education exposes its logics of dependence and control and begins to weave a new tapestry of education for community cooperation and resilience Set during the ongoing transition between post industrial globalization and the community structures that are to come this rich narrative moves from furrows of Appalachian red clay soil to the mountaintop homesteads of elder seed savers to the conveyor belts of sterilized food sorting machines and finally to a school's cafeteria on the day that 250 portions of student grown sweet potatoes were served Along the way Fallow Lands centers knowledges of place as well as the literal and metaphorical seeds of relocalized food and education systems Critical and theoretically informed the text disobeys the values purpose and canon of public education and proposes a fledgling pedagogy to address the challenges of the coming age ENDORSEMENTS Eric Klein's Fallow Lands of Plenty is a stirring manifesto for transforming public schools into centers of learning about community resilience and for transitioning to a pedagogy of relocalization that prepares students for the unstructuring of the hegemonic corporate food regime set in motion by climate collapse What sets Fallow Lands of Plenty apart is the ethic of relational care that informs Klein's deeply personal style of writing Incisive radical and accessible the writing uplifts students teachers elders cafeteria women and extension agents as co producers of new modes of public schooling in rural Appalachia that foster collective ownership of learning and intergenerational transfers of knowledge cast out by official state curricula Anatoli Ignatov Appalachian State University A must read for today and tomorrow's generations Fallow Lands of Plenty reminds us that our ancestors did things a certain way for certain reasons and the survival of this knowledge may very well mean our own Heath Robertson Cherokee Central Schools Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug

Inside Today's Elementary Schools James J. Dillon, 2019-08-08 This book takes readers on a tour of a day in the life of a public elementary school in an effort to give parents and other stakeholders a sense of the realities of the classroom The tour reveals ten worrisome things about today's schools and considers what to do about them Dillon emphasizes the need for future schools to be places filled with adventure and high purpose with classrooms small enough to waste only a minimum of time They should be free from stifling levels of bureaucracy supervised by rotating teacher administrators rather than career managers The book asserts that schools should be staffed by scholarly and engaged teaching professionals dedicated to helping students live a healthy adult life in a democracy rather than imposing a one size fits all furiously assessed college prep curriculum on everyone In all Dillon argues schools should be places with classrooms of narrow ability ranges dedicated to teaching a coherent curriculum all in a context of full buy in and support from students families Let's go inside today's elementary schools
