

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

Announcements Kristina Mendicino, 2020-01-01 A study of novelty through analyses of the language of announcement in revolutionary texts Walter Benjamin claimed that the notion of novelty took on unprecedented importance with the growth of high capitalism in the nineteenth century In this book Kristina Mendicino analyzes a selection of canonical texts that reflect profound concern with novelty and its apparent contrary the eternal return of the same including Nietzsche's Thus Spoke Zarathustra Baudelaire's lyric and prose poetry and Marx and Engels's Communist Manifesto She also addresses Eternity by the Stars by Louis Auguste Blanqui who is less well known and often underestimated in considerations of his significance for revolutionary political theory Mendicino argues that the notion of a novum cannot be understood without attentiveness to the language of announcement not least of all because the new has always been associated with a particular mode of linguistic performance Through close readings of emphatically annunciatory texts she demonstrates how the extreme possibilities of expression that they present through specific citational and rhetorical praxes render the language of announcement overdetermined and anachronistic in ways that exceed any systematic account of historical time and experience This excess in and through language is precisely what opens hitherto unheard of alternatives for conceiving of historical temporality and political possibility Impressive in scope and philosophically sophisticated this erudite and elegantly written book is quite simply dazzling Mendicino successfully tears down many of the tired clichés that too often subtend discussions about novelty and modernism and makes persuasive arguments for her own novel claims about why the appeal to novelty matters so much In her capable hands the question of novelty becomes a lever with which she powerfully pries open familiar texts philosophical traditions and concepts and transforms those recognizable topoi into resources for thinking differently about historical time revolution capital wealth theory and practice Elissa Marder author of Dead Time Temporal Disorders in the Wake of Modernity Baudelaire and Flaubert The Future, Declassified Mathew Burrows, 2025-06-25 Twenty five years ago when Mathew Burrows went to work for the CIA as an intelligence analyst the world seemed frozen Then came the fall of the Berlin Wall and the implosion of the Soviet Union suddenly unpredictability became a universal theme and foresight was critical For the past decade Burrows has overseen the creation of the Global Trends report the key futurist guide for the White House Departments of State and Defense and Homeland Security Global Trends has a history of making bold predictions and being right In 2004 it argued that al Qaeda s centralized operations would dissolve and be replaced by groups cells and individuals the very model of the 2012 Boston bombings In 2008 it included a scenario dubbed October Surprise imagining a devastating late season hurricane hitting an unprepared New York City In The Future Declassified Burrows for the first time has expanded the most recent Global Trends report into a full length narrative forecasting the tectonic shifts that will drive us to 2030 A staggering amount of wholesale change is happening from unprecedented and widespread aging to rampant urbanization and growth in a global middle class to an eastward shift in economic power and a growing number of disruptive technologies Even our physical geography is changing as sea levels rise and faster commercial shipping routes open up through a warming Arctic region The book concludes with its most provocative section four fictional paths to 2030 with imagined storylines and characters based on analysis by the most authoritative figures in the intelligence community As Burrows argues we are living through some of the greatest and most momentous developments in history Either we take charge and direct those or we are at their mercy The stakes are particularly high for America s standing in the world and for ordinary Americans who want to maintain their quality of life Running the gamut from scary to reassuring this riveting book is essential reading

State Capitalism Joshua Kurlantzick, 2016-03-08 The end of the Cold War ushered in an age of American triumphalism best characterized by the Washington Consensus the idea that free markets democratic institutions limitations on government involvement in the economy and the rule of law were the foundations of prosperity and stability The last fifteen years starting with the Asian financial crisis have seen the gradual erosion of that consensus Many commentators have pointed to the emergence of a powerful new rival model state capitalism In state capitalist regimes the government typically owns firms in strategic industries Not beholden to private sector shareholders such firms are allowed to operate with razor thin margins if the state deems them strategically important China soon to be the world s largest economy is the best known state capitalist regime but it is hardly the only one In State Capitalism Joshua Kurlantzick ranges across the world China Thailand Brazil Russia South Africa Turkey and more and argues that the increase in state capitalism across the globe has on balance contributed to a decline in democracy He isolates some of the reasons for state capitalism s resurgence the fact that globalization favors economies of scale in the most critical industries and the widespread rejection of the Washington Consensus in the face of the problems that have plagued the world economy in recent years That said a number of democratic nations have embraced state capitalism and in those regimes state backed firms like Brazil s Embraer have enjoyed considerable success Kurlantzick highlights the mixed record and the evolving nature of the model yet he is more concerned about the negative effects of state capitalism When states control firms whether in democratic or authoritarian regimes the government increases its advantage over the rest of society The combination of new technologies the perceived failures of liberal economics and democracy in many developing nations the rise of modern kinds of authoritarians and the success of some of the best known state capitalists have created an era ripe for state intervention

State Capitalism offers the sharpest analysis yet of what state capitalism's emergence means for democratic politics around the world

Remaking the Modern World 1900 - 2015 C. A. Bayly, 2018-10-22 The sequel and companion volume to C A Bayly's ground breaking The Birth of the Modern World 1780-1914 this wide ranging and sophisticated study explores global history since the First World War offering a coherent comparative overview of developments in politics economics and society at large Written by one of the leading historians of his generation an early intellectual leader in the study of World History Weaves a clear narrative history that explores the themes of politics economics social cultural and intellectual life throughout the long twentieth century Identifies the themes of state capital and communication as key drivers of change on a global scale in the last century and explores the impact of those ideas Interrogates whether warfare was really the pre eminent driving force of twentieth century history and what other ideas shaped the course of history in this period Explores the causes behind the resurgence of local conflict rather than global scale conflict in the years since the turn of the millennium Delves into the narrative of inequality a story that has shaped and been shaped by the events of the last hundred years Part of The Blackwell History of the World Series The goal of this ambitious series is to provide an accessible source of knowledge about the entire human past for every curious person in every part of the world It will comprise some two dozen volumes of which some provide synoptic views of the history of particular regions while others consider the world as a whole during a particular period of time The volumes are narrative in form giving balanced attention to social and cultural history in the broadest sense as well as to institutional development and political change Each provides a systematic account of a very large subject but they are also both imaginative and interpretative The Series is intended to be accessible to the widest possible readership and the accessibility of its volumes is matched by the style of presentation and production 32

Counties Kieran Allen, 2021-04-20 This is Irish history seen anew from below bristling with practical lessons for working class struggle today Eamonn McCann The 32 counties of Ireland were divided through imperial terror and gerrymandering Partition was borne from a Tory strategy to defend the British Empire and has spawned a carnival of reaction in Irish politics ever since Over the last 100 years conservative forces have dominated both states offering religious identity as a diversion from economic failures and inequality Through a sharp analysis of the history of partition Kieran Allen rejects the view that the two cultures of Catholic and Protestant communities lock people into permanent antagonism Instead the sectarian states have kept its citizens divided through political and economic measures like austerity competition for reduced services and low wages Overturning conventional narratives 32 Counties evokes the tradition of James Connolly and calls for an Irish unity movement from below to unite the North and the Republic into a secular socialist and united Ireland CTET Success Master Social Science/Studies Paper-2 for Class 6 to 8 2020 Arihant Experts, 2020-01-02 Throughout the world teaching is looked at as one of the most respected and noble profession a person could have A great teacher not only shows the right path that a student should follow but also prepares the human resources for the further development of the nation Among

The Ideas That Rule Us Chris Grocott,2024-10-07 It may seem surprising that the economic choices we make in society are often determined by ideas rather than scientific evidence or financial resources The consequences of such choices are often stark such as the austerity policies which eroded our ability to withstand crises like the Covid 19 pandemic This book explores the ideas that rule how our economy works how government operates and how workers organise A small number of historical economic ideas remain stubbornly prevalent and powerful today However they are largely based on questionable assumptions about human behaviour and unproven theoretical ideas about economics They were founded within the realms of philosophy and politics rather than hard science This book illustrates how politicians have selectively borrowed convenient economic concepts in order to promote and defend policies which entrench and escalate inequalities and other structural problems This accessible book invites readers to question the ideas that rule us and explore the challenges facing society It invites progressive thought about how we need to urgently organise action for the future

The End of the Museum Kevin Coffee,2025-08-08 This provocative book challenges frequently voiced assertions regarding museums as necessary and valued modern institutions It raises fundamental existential questions about contemporary museums as products of the modern colonial world order Drawing on practical examples of collecting and exhibiting theoretical research and critique from diverse countries across the globe including Chile India Korea the Netherlands Nigeria Palestine Portugal Sri Lanka and the United States this book moves beyond the conventional Eurocentric museological framework This book synthesizes contemporary critiques of museums while arguing that societies need the sociocultural examinations that museums are capable of facilitating and that radical transformations of the museum are fraught with difficulty but also possible and necessary Ultimately Coffee argues that museums can only be future orientated if they are transformed into agents of social justice and inclusion divestors of illicit collections and proponents of a liberatory ethic opposing neo colonialism in all of its forms During that transformative process as this book demonstrates museum practice and museum theory must also be transformed The End of the Museum Culture Colonialism and Liberation will appeal to students researchers and practitioners interested in a critical examination of museum work and theory

Comparing Post War Japanese and Finnish Economies and Societies Yasushi Tanaka,Toshiaki Tamaki,Jari Ojala,Jari Eloranta,2014-11-13 This book compares two countries with striking parallels in economic and political outcomes yet with some distinct features in terms of institutional structures relative size and culture Therefore this book forms a fruitful platform for the study of the similarities and differences in the economic and societal development of Japan and Finland Despite their geographic distance from one another and the aforementioned differences both countries experienced rather similar economic and societal development patterns after the Second World War The study of these societies both individually and through commonalities will provide a unique perspective on the emergence of modern economies and institutions The book provides comprehensive coverage on issues such as welfare state formation and society security and military spending education system industrial development international trade governmental economic policies energy solutions and bubbles and their collapse thus issues typical for these countries as well as most modern states studied from a longitudinal perspective The book aims to answer a fundamental question in social science Why do there seem to be common trends and developmental paths among countries differing in size culture and economic structure This book will provide insights for those seeking to decipher how the developments in their own countries came about and where they may be headed to

The Women's Liberation Movement and the Politics of Class in Britain George Stevenson,2019-02-21 This is the first study of the British Women s Liberation Movement s relationship with class politics It explores the meaning of class to women s liberationists identities and activism both nationally and regionally using a previously neglected feminist cluster in North East England as a case study Stevenson demonstrates that British feminism was shaped fundamentally by its relationship to synthesis with and rejection of class politics Through these processes feminists recognised how post war changes in the economy and gender roles were reshaping class and the Women s Liberation Movement attempted to remake class politics in response However socio economic and cultural class differences between the women involved linked to occupation education and background remained intractable obstacles causing tensions within groups fragmentations into specific class based groups and the ultimate failure of the movement to coalesce into a coherent coalition with labour politics despite great levels of solidarity around particular struggles Examining regional feminism against the national backdrop The Women s Liberation Movement and the Politics of Class in Britain provides an engaging exploration of the fruitful but challenging relationship between British feminism and class politics in a capitalist society

Asylum - A Right Denied Helen

O'Nions,2016-04-15 In recent decades asylum has emerged as a highly politicized European issue The term asylum seeker has suffered a negative perception and has been associated with notions of illegality and criminality in mainstream media These misconceptions have been supported by politicians as a distraction from economic and political uncertainties with the result that asylum seekers have been deprived of significant rights This book examines the effect of recent attempts of harmonization on the identification and protection of refugees It considers the extent of obligations on the state to admit and protect refugees and examines the 1951 Refugee Convention The motivations of European legislators and legislation concerning asylum procedures and reception conditions are also analysed Proposals and initiatives for refugee movements and determinations are examined and assessed The author makes suggestions for better protection of refugees while responding to the security concerns of States and questions whether European law and policy is doing enough to uphold the fundamental right to seek and enjoy asylum as set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights This book takes a bold look at a controversial issue and generates discussion for those involved in the fields of human rights migrational and transnational studies law and society and international law Chinese Migrants and Africa's Development Doctor Ben

Lampert,Doctor May Tan-Mullins,Daphne Chang,Giles Mohan,2014-06-12 China's recent stepping up of relations with Africa is one of the most significant developments on the African continent for decades For some it promises an end to Africa's dependent aid relationships as the Chinese bring expertise technology and a stronger business focus But for others it is no more than a new form of imperialism This book is the first to systematically study the motivations relationships and impact of this migration It focuses not just on the Chinese migrants but also on the perceptions of and linkages to their African hosts By studying this everyday interaction we get a much richer picture of whether this is South-South cooperation as political leaders would have us believe or a more complex relationship that can both compromise and encourage African development

Censorship and the Limits of the Literary Nicole Moore,2017-02-23 Explores the defining relationship of literature to censorship across the globe Ethics for Governance B. P. Mathur,2015-06-12 This book provides a comprehensive overview of India's public services and bureaucratic systems and explores why widespread corruption and inefficient delivery have slowed development It discusses the underlying reasons for the prevailing inefficiency in public services examines the complex linkages between ethics-based public service India's cultural and spiritual heritage and its current economic development model and outlines ways to create an ethics code and an environment that is conducive to better administration and good governance Lucid accessible and meticulously researched this will prove essential to scholars and students of public administration governance studies and political science particularly bureaucrats policy makers and civil service aspirants Democratic Discord in Schools Meira Levinson,Jacob Fay,2020-07-22 Teaching in a democracy is challenging and filled with dilemmas that have no easy answers For example how do educators meet their responsibilities of teaching civic norms and dispositions while remaining nonpartisan Democratic Discord in Schools features eight normative cases of complex dilemmas drawn from real events designed to help educators practice the type of collaborative problem solving and civil discourse needed to meet these challenges of democratic education Each of the cases also features a set of six commentaries written by a diverse array of scholars educators policy makers students and activists with a range of political views to spark reflection and conversation Drawing on research and methods developed in the Justice in Schools project at the Harvard Graduate School of Education HGSE Democratic Discord in Schools provides the tools that allow educators and others to practice the deliberative skills they need in order to find reasonable solutions to common ethical dilemmas in politically fraught times

The Limits to Capital in Spain G. Charnock, T. Purcell, R. Ribera-Fumaz, 2014-02-18 Spain is at the epicentre of a crisis that threatens the future of the Eurozone This book explains the deep historical and structural roots of the current crisis in Spain It analyses the nexus between European circuits of financial capital urbanisation and the emergent dynamics of state austerity and popular revolt

Critical Perspectives on Food Sovereignty Marc Edelman, 2017-10-02 This volume is a pioneering contribution to the study of food politics and critical agrarian studies where food sovereignty has emerged as a pivotal concept over the past few decades with a wide variety of social movements on the ground experiments and policy innovations flying under its broad banner Despite its large and growing popularity the history theoretical foundations and political program of food sovereignty have only occasionally received in depth analysis and critical scrutiny This collection brings together both longstanding scholars in critical agrarian studies such as Philip McMichael Bina Agarwal Henry Bernstein Jan Douwe van der Ploeg and Marc Edelman as well as a dynamic roster of early and mid career researchers The ultimate aim is to advance this important frontier of research and organizing and put food sovereignty on stronger footing as a mobilizing frame a policy objective and a plan of action for the human future This volume was published as part one of the special double issue celebrating the 40th anniversary of the Journal of Peasant Studies

From Havana to Hollywood Philip Kaisary, 2024-07-01 From Havana to Hollywood examines the presence or absence of Black resistance to slavery in feature films produced in either Havana or Hollywood including Gillo Pontecorvo's Burn neglected masterpieces by Cuban auteurs Tom's Gutierrez Alea and Sergio Giral and Steve McQueen's Oscar winning 12 Years a Slave Philip Kaisary argues that with rare exceptions the representation of Black agency in Hollywood has always been and remains taboo Contrastingly Cuban cinema foregrounds Black agency challenging the ways in which slavery has been misremembered and misunderstood in North America and Europe With powerful richly theorized readings the book shows how Cuban cinema especially recreates the past to fuel visions of liberation and asks how the medium of film might contribute to a renewal of emancipatory politics today
