Race, Racism, and Antiracism in Language Education Ryuko Kubota, Suhanthi Motha, 2024-10-30 Building on the pioneering 2009 volume Race, Culture and Identities in Second Language Education, this book reflects the significant expansion in the research since its publication and offers a wider breadth of perspectives on the complex theoretical terrain of race, racism and antiracism in language education. Contributors to this book apply a range of conceptual and methodological lenses to teaching diverse world languages. Underscoring the interconnectedness of race and colonialism, world language education and intersectional ideologies, this book offers a forum for engaged dialogues among teachers, teacher educators, teacher candidates, graduate and advanced undergraduate students, curriculum developers, policymakers and educational researchers in a wide range of disciplines including language education. In covering important theoretical frames and constructs including raciolinguistic and anti-oppressive pedagogies, decoloniality, neoliberalism and reverse linguistic stereotyping, this book breaks from the Global North norms in applied linguistics and language instruction. An essential text in TESOL and world language education, this volume weaves meaningful connections among language education, language in education policy and research.

Merging Numeracy with Literacy Practices for Equity in Multilingual Early Year Settings Robyn Jorgensen, Mellony Graven, 2022-01-01 This book draws on both in and out of school literacy practices with teachers and families to enhance the numeracy of early learners. It provides highly illustrative exemplars targeted for learners up to approximately eight years of age whose home language differs from the language of instruction. It identifies the challenges faced by these learners and their families and shares ways of building both literacy and numeracy skills for some of the vulnerable learners nationally and internationally. The book shares the outcomes and strategies for teaching mathematics to early years learners and highlights the importance of literacy practices for learners for whom the language of instruction is different from their home language. Readers will gain a practical sense of how to create contexts, classrooms and practices to scaffold these learners to build robust understandings of mathematics.

originality by a scholar who has written other well known sociological works and the treatment is that of the sociologist Dr Diamond writes for the intelligent layman as well as the linguist He first seeks the true nature of language and its true function and structure in modern society and traces the paths along which language has developed and changed in its known history both in the forms of its words and in their meanings examining for this purpose many languages of civilized and primitive peoples These paths he then pursues backwards with the aid of data from human physiology the language of children and observations of animal behaviour and shows how all these paths converge to one beginning and deduces how language originated both the form of its first words and their meanings He finally shows relics of these earliest words and meanings in languages which still survive The arguments are cumulative and many sided and the case made is convincing This is a must read for scholars and researchers of linguistics The United States Army and Navy Journal and Gazette of the Regular and Volunteer Forces ,1910 Bulletin - Bureau of Education United States.
