What Translators Do from the Publisher's Perspective: How and Why Translators Work

Consider the following: In 1999, 20 million Americans reported they would prefer to pay companies online instead of their bank. And by 2002, 40 million Americans reported they would prefer to pay companies online instead of their bank. That's a 100% increase in just three years. So, what's the answer? Is it time to start accepting online payments?
