

The background of the cover is a sepia-toned relief sculpture. The central figure is a large, seated scholar or scribe, wearing a long, draped robe. He is leaning forward, writing in a large, open book with a quill pen. To his right, there is a small, ornate structure with arched openings, possibly a shrine or a desk. Below the main figure, there is a row of three smaller, seated figures, also in robes, each engaged in a different activity: one appears to be writing, another is holding a long object (possibly a scroll or a staff), and the third is holding a book. The entire scene is set within a classical architectural framework with columns and arches.
