and described As noted in Chapter 3 a standard order of scale presentation is followed First the attitudes scales are presented followed by the behavior ratings personality measures milieu ratings prediction measures and finally the very broad category of description After the reviews are completed within each subcategory other scales in that category are listed See Chapter 2 for a description of the criteria that were used in deciding upon whether a scale would be reviewed or simply listed Listed scales are presented by title and bibliographic reference followed by a very brief description

Parodistic Intertextuality and Intermediality in Postmodern American Fiction: Robert Coover and Kathy Acker

Matthias Voller, 1997-08-30 Inhaltsangabe Abstract Reading postmodern fiction once a term limited to denote a decidedly US American tendency in contemporary literature but now applicable to a whole range of works that have in recent years been published by an international group of writers one almost invariably gets the uneasy feeling of having read it all before Recognizing some passages the reader feels a strong sense of déjà vu and keeps wondering whether the passages he or she does not recognize are just from those books he or she has not read Surely enough an increasingly large number of postmodern authors tend to conceive their books as a jumble of allusions to themes structures and scenes from earlier texts so called master or parent texts Others go even further in alluding to previously published texts They deliberately draw on one particular generally acknowledged and highly acclaimed master text or classical piece of world literature and read it parodically against the grain thus re writing and re working a renowned classic into a new work of art Still others overtly appropriate and even plagiarize titles paragraphs and whole passages from a variety of literary predecessors However allusions appropriations and plagiarisms are only on the surface of postmodern fiction beneath are other things which are formally more interesting parodistic intertextuality as a leitmotif central to a postmodern synthesis challenging traditional literary concepts such as author genre and literary period on the one hand and originality and inventiveness on the other hand fragmentation of literature and simultaneous presentation of literary and cinematic scenes and events from a variety of perspectives also referred to as synchronic approach of telling a story deconstruction and re presentation of texts and ultimately recognition of fiction as a world of its own as a linguistic artefact which does not stand for reality any longer Consequently postmodern fiction is not concerned with the process of writing as a one to one reproduction of reality Quite the contrary postmodern fiction abandons the mimetic principle of conventional narrative and severs its ties to space time cause and effect and reality and goes back to the original springs of narrative Going beyond the limits of the real world and exploring the realms of fantasy and dreams postmodern fiction evidently manifests a turning back to fairy tales religious parables and the stories
