- Support your ideas with three details from the paragraph.
- Firstly, "back already full" implies that the dog was approaching me, concentrating on the point it scented the person carrying.
 - Secondly, "muzzled and latching on" suggests that the dog was covering the source, thus making them less likely to be noticed.
 - Thirdly, "wouldn't barked down with any other children" says that there was no louder sound to help them get past the dog which would alert them as without a strong light source, it would be challenging to hike through the mountains.
- [2]
