Trauma and Attachment in the Kindertransport Context Iris Guske,2009-03-26 The present volume is the result of an interdisciplinary oral history research project which was carried out at the Centre for German Jewish Studies at the University of Sussex It focuses on the Kindertransport the British rescue operation saving 10 000 predominantly German Jewish children from Nazi Germany and is based on in depth case studies of five child survivors of the Holocaust Looking at human development over the life cycle as mediated by intervening trauma was at the heart of the project which examined the making and breaking of a child s close ties to significant others processes of identity formation under acculturative stress as well as the creation and recall of traumatic memories The study is thus one of the few in the field of attachment research which sheds light on the lifelong influence which early attachment has on coping with massive cumulative trauma The former child refugees narratives are enriched by letters diaries or articles written by them and their host families as well as by interviews conducted with family members and friends Consequently we can look at individual lives and collective destinies from more than one perspective as we are provided with rich multi layered accounts of people s whole life trajectories While each Holocaust survivor s developmental story is unique it is however linked to the others by the common experience of negotiating an identity between two countries cultures and religions against the background of unparalleled political upheavals and as such also sheds light on and offers ways out of the traumata suffered in present day contexts of enforced migration and displacement

Quanta, Spirit, and Mindful Matter Susan M. Leva,2013-03 Ms Leva has written a book that goes beyond the 6th sense and includes Quantum physics for the layman This theory suggests that human beings are connected to each other by means other than just using the power of the mind Ms Leva has decided to share her true stories that will take the reader to other realms of consciousness and she hopes they will inspire others to share more stories that deal with the unexplained Quanta simply means light Her stories include this energy that can be helpful for human beings to live consciously using awareness in thought and behavior Spirit is the essence of one's soul Matter that is Mindful has been done through rigorous experiments in the sub atomic world thereby helping to explain our ability to form connections without our knowledge in relation to one another on the blue planet Knowing this to occur scientists have been inspired to keep exploring as the quest for understanding more about our infinite universe continues So sit back relax and enjoy the ride as spooky can be fun while learning to become more open to the possibilities of life For me this book could not be written without the expertise of physicists scientists biologists mediums philosophers journalists and all those who understand that this life is truly an abundance of knowledge coming together from many fields Each of these pioneers have enabled me to piece together some very important answers to my unanswered questions leaving room for many more I've had ah ha moments while reading the work of these folks who are my true heroes They have turned on the light

The Health Promoting School Bjarne Bruun Jensen, Stephen Clift, 2005-12-31 This book brings together recent international scholarship on the links between education and health and recent research evidence evaluating the processes and outcomes of health promoting schools initiatives The book arises out of the Education and Health in Partnership conference which took place in Egmond aan Zee the Netherlands in September 2002 The key aims of the conference were to focus on effective partnership working for health in schools and to consider the evidence base for health promoting schools programmes A significant outcome of the conference was the Egmond Agenda which outlines the principal components for success in establishing health promoting schools Contributors from across Europe the United States South Africa and Australia present findings from national health promoting school projects with a particular emphasis on the promotion of mental health The volume will be of interest to all education and health professionals interested in the contributions of schools in promoting health empowerment action competence and wellbeing of young people

The Body in Psychotherapy Don Hanlon Johnson, Ian J. Grand, 1998-05-01 The Body in Psychotherapy explores the life of the body as a basis of psychological understanding Its chapters describe the use of movement awareness exercises and bodily imagination in work with various populations and life situations It chronicles somatic work with childhood trauma political torture and life transitions such as aging the loss of parents and the emergence of a sense of self The Body in Psychotherapy is the third in a groundbreaking series that provides a theoretical and practical context for the emerging field of Somatics The first and second book of the series are Bone Breath and Gesture and Groundworks
