The World Atlas of Street Art Rafael Schacter,2023-06-15 This truly global and visually stunning compendium showcases some of the most breath taking pieces of street art and graffiti from around the world Since its genesis on the East Coast of the United States in the late 1960s street art has travelled to nearly every corner of the globe morphing into highly ornate and vibrant new styles This unique atlas is the first truly geographical survey of urban art revised and updated in 2023 to include new voices increased female representation and cities emerging as street art hubs Featuring specially commissioned works from major graffiti and street art practitioners it offers you an insider's view of the urban landscape as the artists themselves experience it Organized geographically by continent and by city from New York Los Angeles and Montreal in North America through Mexico City and Buenos Aires in Latin America to London Berlin and Madrid in Europe Sydney and Auckland in the Pacific as well as brand new chapters covering Africa and Asia it profiles more than 100 of today's most important artists and features over 700 astonishing artworks This beautifully illustrated book produced with the help of many of the artists it features dispels the idea of such art as a thoughtless defacement of pristine surfaces and instead celebrates it as a contemporary and highly creative inscription upon the skin of the built environment

Streets of George Town, Penang Salma Nasution Khoo, 2007

Malaysia's Canvas James H. Springer, In February 2014 an international colony of young freewheeling and footloose artists held a group exhibition that would stand as a pivotal turning point for the future of George Town Penang It was an exhibition destined to make the artists household names infamous for boldly swinging into parties and installing challenging art onto Southeast Asian walls It would also spell the return of George Town to a worldwide destination a city relegated to backwater ashes rising to heights shared by heritage culture and cosmopolitanism In this personal expos James H Springer documents the lives and times of artists during the period of 2010 to 2016 telling the story of George Town's gentrification through their own influential experiences Through childhood memories artistic inspirations fluctuating relationships and artwork learn how these young artists lay a new path for George Town going into unpredictable times During what could arguably be described as Malaysia's most troubling political era Springer describes how the flourishing of art in George Town gave its population a much needed respite from federal government tomfoolery In addition George Town's rising art scene gave Penang State a leg up in economic prosperity creating an unheard of level of opportunity that would either be capitalised on or squandered Malaysia's Canvas lays bare the reality of being an artist in a developing country and the change it can inspire with no holds barred
