Learning about the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa (1996)
The Constitution of South Africa (1996) is the highest law in the country. This law is higher than the President, higher than the courts and higher than the government.
It describes how the government runs our country, defines what each state, and what their rights and responsibilities are. The constitution of a country is there to protect all of citizens and non-citizens in the future.

|-----------------------|-----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| On pages of our past. | Let us not repeat the mistakes of past. | Our Constitution helps us to imagine and build a better future for all. |
|-----------------------|-----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|

We the people of South Africa
Recognise the injustices of our past
Honour those who fought for justice and freedom in our land
Respect those who have worked to build and develop our country and
Believe in our South African feelings to all who live in it, united in our diversity
We therefore, through our freely elected representatives, adopt the Constitution as law of the Republic to which:
We bind the division of the past and establish a country based on democratic values, social justice and fundamental human rights
Let the foundation for a democratic and open society in which government is based on the will of the people and every citizen is equally protected by law
Improve the quality of life of all citizens and free the potential of each person and
Build a united and democratic South Africa able to take its rightful place as a sovereign state in the family of nations

|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| Take your rights as a South African and be responsible to protect the rights of others. | Have your full of rights & full of responsibilities. |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|

May God bless our people
May 'Isithak' Africa, blessed be the soil where we live
And may God bless our Union South Africa
