

How to Improve Your Writing VOCABULARY

Practice these effective tips to improve your vocabulary for writing.

EnglishGrammarSoft

1

Develop a habit of reading

When you encounter phrases in context, it's easier to build your vocabulary. Seeing terms in a novel or a newspaper article is considerably more beneficial than seeing them on a vocabulary list. You not only learn new words, but you also get to learn how they're implemented.

Use a dictionary and a glossary to guide your understanding

When executed correctly, online dictionaries and thesauruses are great tools. They can help you know synonyms that are better words in the context of your work. Another strategy to learn vocabulary is to look up words or phrases, root words, and similar terms in a full dictionary description.

Play word games

Scrabble and Boggle are two popular games that can help you expand your English vocabulary. Crossword puzzles are another method. Follow up rounds of these word games with some note-taking if you want to be efficient.

4

Make use of mnemonics

A mnemonic device is a word association that helps recall terminology and valuable ability to read and write. Consider the word obsequious, which denotes "trying to obtain favor from influential people through seduction."

5

Practice communicating with new terms

It's possible to have a better vocabulary without knowing how to utilize it. This suggests that you must use a dictionary of your own choice. Make a point of using an exciting word you come across in your reading in conversation.
