Academics Engaging with Student Writing Jackie Tuck, 2017-07-14 Student writing has long been viewed as a problem in higher education in the UK Moreover the sector has consistently performed poorly in the National Student Survey with regard to assessment and feedback Academics Engaging with Student Writing tackles these major issues from a new and unique angle exploring the real life experiences of academic teachers from different institutions as they set support read respond to and assess assignments undertaken by undergraduate students Incorporating evidence from post 1992 universities Oxbridge members of the Russell Group and others this book examines working practices around student writing within the context of an increasingly market oriented mass higher education system Presenting a wealth of relevant examples from disciplines as diverse as History and Sports Science Tuck makes extensive use of interviews observations texts and audio recordings in order to explore the perspectives of academic teachers who work with student writers and their texts This book will be of interest to researchers academics and postgraduate students in the fields of academic literacies higher education language and literacy language in higher education English for academic purposes and assessment Furthermore academic teachers with experience of this crucial aspect of academic labour will welcome Tuck's pioneering work as an indispensable tool for making sense of their own engagement with student writers

Genre Across The Curriculum Anne Herrington, Charles Moran, 2005-02-24 Genre across the Curriculum will function as a good textbook one not for the student but for the teacher and one with an eye on the context of writing Here you will find models of practice descriptions written by teachers who have integrated the teaching of genre into their pedagogy in ways that both support and empower the student writer While authors here look at courses across disciplines and across a range of genres they are similar in presenting genre as situated within specific classrooms disciplines and institutions Their assignments embody the pedagogy of a particular teacher and student responses here embody students prior experiences with writing In each chapter the authors define a particular genre define the learning goals implicit in assigning that genre explain how they help their students work through the assignment and finally discuss how they evaluate the writing their students do in response to their teaching

Racing Translingualism in Composition Tom Do, Karen Rowan, 2022-09-15 Racing Translingualism provides both theoretical and pedagogical reconsiderations of the translingual approach to language diversity by addressing the intersections of race and translingualism This collection extends the disciplinary conversations about translingualism by foregrounding the role race and racism play in the construction and maintenance of language differences In doing so the contributors examine the co naturalization of race and language in order to theorize a race conscious translingual praxis The book begins by offering generative critiques of translingualism centering on the ways in which the approach s democratic orientation to language avoids issues of race language and power and appeals to colorblind racist tropes of equal opportunity Following these critiques contributors demonstrate the important intersections of race and translingualism by drawing upon voices typically marginalized by monolingual language ideologies and pedagogies Finally Racing Translingualism concludes by attending to the pedagogical implications of a race conscious translingual praxis in writing and literacy education Making the case for race conscious rather than colorblind theories and pedagogies Racing Translingualism offers a unique take on how translingualism is theorized and practiced and moves the field forward through its direct consideration of the links between language race and racism Contributors Lindsey Albracht Steven Alvarez Bethany Davila Tom Do Jaclyn Hilberg Bruce Horner Aja Martinez Esther Milu Stephanie Mosher Yasmine Romero Karen Rowan Rachael Shapiro Shawanda Stewart Brian Stone Victor Villanueva Missy Watson

Situating Composition Ede, Lisa, 2004 Responding to a growing pedagogical paralysis in debates over the nature and status of composition studies as an academic discipline Lisa Ede offers a provocative inquiry into the politics of composition s place in the academy The result is a timely and engaging reflection on the rhetoric ideology and ethics of scholarship and instruction in composition studies today

Authoring A Discipline Maureen Daly Goggin, 2000-05 This volume examines the development of the rhetoric composition disciplines through a historical analysis of the journals that published scholarship in these areas For scholars researchers teachers and students of composition rhetoric

Reading Culture Diana George, John Trimbur, 2001 Reading Culture is the original cultural studies based reader Now in its fourth edition this widely used text continues to challenge students with provocative readings images writing assignments and fieldwork projects In addition to an updated case study of talk television this edition of Reading Culture includes a second case study which draws on both print and internet resources to examine debates on the meaning and the consequences of the Columbine High School shootings As with previous editions Reading Culture continues to include instruction for reading and evaluating visual messages for conducting micro ethnographies and for writing about the culture of everyday life

John Trimbur Call To Write 6th Edition: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. John Trimbur Call To Write 6th Edition : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
