

The background of the entire image is a soft-focus photograph of a man and a woman in a romantic embrace. The man is on the left, leaning towards the woman on the right. They are both looking down, and their faces are partially visible in profile. The lighting is warm and intimate, creating a sense of closeness and affection. The colors are muted, with a palette of soft blues, greys, and warm skin tones.

Journey into Love Martin

Rymarz,2020-06-17 Born and raised in the Midwest to a low income family Martin was raised in a racially diverse culture in the unforgiving and yet unbreakable town of Flint Michigan Having never met his biological father and having been adopted at a young age Martin grew up in a religious family that often failed to practice what they heard preached on Sunday Journey into Love chronicles Martin s journey through adolescence marrying having children at a young age and the lessons learned throughout his life Along the way Martin experienced many teaching moments that while not evident to him at the time formed him and fermented in his subconscious as he continued to make choices some wise and some poor based upon his need for immediate gratification Though unique in his specific experiences and the depth to which he took his studies to learn and grow many of the challenges that Martin struggled with and describes in this book are common to many individuals men and women in today s society As a Benedictine oblate Martin developed close relationships with many priests monks nuns and spiritual directors of different faiths These relationships and the wisdom gained from these mentors and spiritual guides are woven into both sobering and humorous anecdotes throughout this book In addition Martin shares his experiences leaving the corporate world to pursue a path of service to others and personal exploration The steps he took to divest himself of the material possessions he had acquired and begin this monumental shift in lifestyle is chronicled in detail for those also considering this path

Filaments David Tracy,2020-04-06

In the second volume of his two volume collection of essays from the 1980s to 2018 renowned Catholic theologian David Tracy gathers profiles of significant theologians philosophers and religious thinkers These essays he suggests can be thought of in terms of Walt Whitman s filaments which are thrown out from the speaking self to others ancient medieval modern and contemporary in order to be caught elsewhere Filaments arranges its subjects in rough chronological order from choices in ancient theology such as Augustine through the likes of William of St Thierry in the medieval period and Martin Luther and Michelangelo in the early modern and finally to modern and contemporary thinkers including Bernard Lonergan Paul Tillich Simone Weil Karl Rahner Reinhold Niebuhr and Iris

Murdoch Taken together these essays can be understood as a partial initiation into a history of Christian theology defined by Tracy's key virtues of plurality and ambiguity Marked by surprising insights and connections Filaments brings the work of one of North America's most important religious thinkers once again to the forefront to be celebrated by longtime and new readers alike

Murray Bodo, Susan Saint Sing, 2024-03-05 The Canticle of the Creatures is Francis's love song. It is Franciscan wholeness for in it is contained the depth of his prayer and of his life in Christ. In its singing he was singing his dying and his rising for his song was a journey of praise and thanksgiving for his place of origin and his destination the Most High All Powerful Good Lord. Murray Bodo uses St Francis's canticle as a framework. Murray Bodo, a Franciscan friar and Susan Saint Sing, a secular Franciscan, reflect on the vision of Francis and Clare as it has played out over the course of their own lives. Susan's experiences of healing during trips to Assisi and praying in nature and Murray's deep understanding of Francis and Clare as poets and mystics come together in a duet that brings God's love song to life. These deeply personal reflections explore the power of prayer and meditation, the sacredness of all creation and the pull of sacred places. This meditative, reflective reading experience conveys what a lifetime of Franciscan spirituality looks like and will draw you into exploring your own experience of the vision of Francis and Clare. A Symphony of Hearts: Cultivating Love in Relationships Pasquale De
