Ma Vie De Folie:

Narratives of the Therapeutic Encounter Susan Bainbrigge, Maren Scheurer, 2020-07-27 This collection of essays explores the ways in which talking therapies have been depicted in twentieth century and contemporary narratives life writings fiction and poetry in French This vibrant corpus of francophone literary engagements of therapy has so far been widely unexplored but it offers rich insights into the connections between literature and psychoanalysis As the number of autobiographical and fictional depictions of the therapeutic encounter is still on the rise these creative outputs raise pressing questions why do narratives of the therapeutic encounter continue to fascinate writers and readers What do these works tell us about the particular culture and history in which they are written What do they tell us about therapeutic and other human encounters The volume highlights the important role that the creative arts have played in offering representations and explorations of our minds our relationships and our mental health or more pressingly ill health The volume's focus is not only on the patient's experience as expressed via the creative act and as counterweight to the practitioner's case study but more specifically on the therapeutic encounter specifically the relationship between therapist and patient The contributors here engage with ideas and methodologies within contemporary psychoanalytic thought including but not limited to those of Sigmund Freud Melanie Klein André Green Julia Kristeva Jacques Lacan and Donald Winnicott highlighting the dynamic research culture that exists in this field and maintaining a dialogue between the humanities and various therapeutic disciplines Narratives of the Therapeutic Encounter combines the analysis of psychoanalytic and fictional texts to explore the implications that arise from the space between the participants in therapy including creative and aesthetic inspirations therapeutic potentials and ethical dilemmas *Rasselas, prince d'Abyssinie (Rasselas, Prince of Abyssinia) ... Hinson, 2012-01-01 That the poet John Gower was a major literary figure in England at the close of the fourteenth century is no longer in question Scholarly attention paid to him and to his work over the past twenty five years has redeemed him from an undeserved obscurity imposed by the preceding two hundred The facts of his life and career are now documented and recent critical assessment has placed his achievement most accurately alongside Chaucer's Langland's and the Gawain poet's Unique among his contemporaries all of whom undoubtedly read and used French in some measure Gower alone has left us a significant body of verse and prose in Anglo Norman chiefly the twelve stanza poem Mirour de l'Omme the Cinkante Balades and the Traiti pour les amantz marietz We are offered in this concordance of his Anglo Norman work a unique opportunity to view a poetic language as it was written and read in England until Gower's death in 1408 and beyond

Towards a New Anthropology of the Embodied Mind: Maine de Biran's Physio-Spiritualism from 1800 to the 21st Century, 2023-11-13 This exploration in the history of ideas examines the groundbreaking notion of the embodied mind in its analysis by the French philosopher and politician Maine de Biran 1766 1824 and in its afterlife consciousness is generated through frequent interaction between the voluntary and the spiritual The conscious active self is constituted in its sovereign autonomy as free and undivided by an inner act of willful resistance a physical effort towards its own body and the world For the first time a multidisciplinary group of senior and junior researchers from Japan USA and Europe investigate origins and discursive cross fertilization of this concept around 1800 an intermediary stage between 1870 and 1945 and its influence upon existentialism phenomenology and deconstructivism during the postwar period and beyond from 1943 to 2010

French Prose in 2000, 2021-10-18 French Prose in 2000 stems in some important measure from work presented in September 1998 at the International Colloquium on French and Francophone Literature in the 1990's held at Dalhousie University A good number of papers given at that time and since revisited in the light of exchanges join here certain others specifically written for the purposes of this book Together they constitute a wide ranging and modally varied interrogation of the current state of French and francophone prose writing its multifaceted manners its richly divergent fascinations its many theoretical or philosophical groundings The book thus ceaselessly moves its attention from fictional biography to the roman noir from the writing of Glissant and Chamoiseau to that of the tonnants voyageurs from the powerful discourse of women such as Chawaf or Cond Ernaux or Germain Sallenave or Kristeva to that of writers as diverse in their modes as Le Clézio and Quignard Duras and Renaud Camus All chapters focus however in near exclusive measure on the prose production of the last ten or twelve years

The Unruly Tongue in Early Modern England is a scholarly edition of three early modern treatises on the unruly tongue Jean de Marconville A Treatise of the Good and Evell Tounge ca 1592 William Perkins A Direction for the Government of the Tongue according to Gods worde 1595 and George Webbe The Araignement of an unruly Tongue 1619 The tongue can no man tame says the Bible James 3 8 and yet these texts try to tame the tongues of men and tell them how they should rule this little but essential organ and avoid swearing blaspheming cursing lying flattering railing slandering quarrelling babbling jesting or mocking This volume excavates the biblical and classical sources in which these early modern texts are embedded and gives a panorama of the sins of the tongue that the Elizabethan society both cultivates and strives to contain Vienne Guerrin provides the reader with early modern images of what Erasmus described as a slippery and ambivalent organ that is both sweet and sour a source of life and death Feuilles d'herbe Walt Whitman,1922
