Naval Constabulary Operations and Fisheries Governance Sean A. G. Andrews, 2024-05-07 This book offers an analysis of naval constabulary operations in particular Australian fisheries patrols and challenges the widely accepted Anglo American school of maritime thought In the Indo Pacific fisheries and the activities of fishing boats are of increasing strategic importance in Australia s region Australia s Four Oceans Issues of overfishing population growth and climate change are placing growing pressure on fish as a resource and in doing so are making fisheries more significant and significant on a strategic as opposed to simply an economic or environmental level When combined with the growing use of fishing vessels as para naval forces it is clear that the activities of fishing vessels whether fishing or not fishing are matters of considerable strategic relevance This book illuminates contemporary seapower challenges explains and defines maritime security and examines and refines existing theory to advance a set of new or refined concepts to help frame the on water activities of constabulary operations reducing the possibility of on water miscalculation between states This book will be of much interest to students and scholars of naval studies and sea power maritime strategy maritime security and International Relations

Education System in Saudi Arabia Md. Muddassir Quamar, 2020-12-17 This book is a comprehensive study on the education system of Saudi Arabia placing the reforms and changes it has undergone in the past two decades within the context of the historical evolution of the education system An education system cannot be seen in isolation of the society it plays a significant role in shaping the individual state and the society that in turn have a bearing on the education system and its evolution Therefore this book locates Saudi education in the backdrop of the changes in the society how they have facilitated or hindered the education reforms and how the education reforms have impacted the society The book does not ignore the immediate trigger for the beginning of a comprehensive reforms process but goes beyond it to find much deeper socio political and economic rationales that paved the way for the reforms It provides a nuanced understanding of the interplays of various socioeconomic as well as political factors that have shaped the education system in Saudi Arabia

Kingdom Learning David Heywood , 2017-06-23 For generations most churchgoers have been encouraged to see the responsibility for the life and mission of the church in the hands of the trained clergy A church embracing God s call to mission requires these same worshipers to see themselves as missionary disciples with a vital part to play in the church s ministry How is a change of this magnitude to be accomplished Drawing on the discipline of adult education and his own research into the way people learn David Heywood explains how churches can become learning communities in which people grow as disciples and find their place in a collaborative pattern of ministry He challenges the prevailing approach to ministerial training as overly theoretical and individualistic and points towards a model of training based around shared reflection on practice

Open Data Exposed Bastiaan van Loenen, Glenn Vancauwenberghe, Joep Crompvoets, 2018-10-25 The main objectives of this book are to expose key aspects that have a relevance when dealing with open data viewed from different perspectives and to provide appealing examples of how open data is implemented worldwide The concept of open data as we know it today is the result of many different initiatives both of a legislative and non legislative nature and promoted by a wide range of actors Numerous regulatory antecedents to foster the concept of open data and embed it in national and international policy agendas have been undertaken on both sides of the Atlantic as well as at a supranational level The book highlights a number of the efforts made to promote open data in Europe Asia and the United States In addition to new insights practical guidance and multiple disciplinary perspectives on open data the book also addresses the transformation of current developments towards open data which may be referred to as the democratisation of data This book will support open data practitioners as well as open data scholars in their endeavours to promote open data implementation and research Bastiaan van Loenen is associate professor and director of the Knowledge Centre Open Data at the Faculty of Architecture and The Built Environment of Delft University of Technology in the Netherlands as is Glenn Vancauwenberghe who is a post doctoral researcher and Joep Crompvoets is a professor at the Public Governance Institute of the KU Leuven in Belgium

States of Subsistence José Ciro Martínez, 2022-04-12 On any given day in Jordan more than nine million residents eat approximately ten million loaves of khubz arabi the slightly leavened flatbread known to many as pita Some rely on this bread to avoid starvation for others it is a customary pleasure Yet despite its ubiquity in accounts of Middle East politics and society rarely do we consider how bread is prepared consumed discussed and circulated and what this all represents With this book Jos Ciro Mart nez examines khubz arabi to unpack the effects of the welfare program that ensures its widespread availability Drawing on more than a year working as a baker in Amman Mart nez probes the practices that underpin subsidized bread Following bakers and bureaucrats he offers an immersive examination of social welfare provision Mart nez argues that the state is best understood as the product of routine practices and actions through which it becomes a stable truth in the lives of citizens States of Subsistence not only describes logics of rule in contemporary Jordan and the place of bread within them but also unpacks how the state endures through forms sensations and practices amid the seemingly unglamorous and unspectacular day to day

Rivals in Arms Alice Pannier, 2020-10-22 As the UK leaves the European Union and as the multilateral order is increasingly under stress bilateral security links are more important than ever Among such relationships the UK France partnership has become particularly critical in the past decades Alice Pannier s Rivals in Arms reveals the history of the growing special partnership between Europe s two leading military powers in the twenty first century Using an innovative analytical framework rooted in theories of cooperation and negotiation this book exposes the challenges the two countries have faced to develop equip and employ their military capabilities together Through a decade long study Pannier highlights how France and the UK have endeavoured to make their partnership more effective and resistant to domestic and international shifts including Brexit Building on more than one hundred interviews with key stakeholders and unmatched access to primary sources Rivals in Arms takes the reader behind the scenes investigating the complicated but crucial defence relationship between France and the UK a relationship that is critical to the future of Euro Atlantic security
