Twenty First Century Horror Films Douglas Keeseey, 2017-03-23 This lively and illuminating book explores over 100 contemporary horror films providing insightful and provocative readings of what they mean while including numerous quotes from their creators. Some of these films including The Babadook, The Green Inferno, It Follows, The Neon Demon, Pride and Prejudice and Zombies and The Witch are so recent that this will be one of the first times they are discussed in book form. The book is divided into three main sections: nightmares, nations and innovations. Nightmares looks at new manifestations of traditional fears including creepy dolls, haunted houses and demonic possession as well as vampires, werewolves, witches and zombies and also considers more contemporary anxieties such as dread of home invasion and homophobia. Nations explores fright films from around the world including Australia, Canada, Czechoslovakia, France, Germany, India, Japan, Norway, Russia, Serbia, Spain and Sweden as well as the UK and the US. Innovations focuses on the latest trends in terror from 3D to found footage films from Twilight, teen romance to torture porn and from body horror and eco horror to techno horror. Parodies, remakes and American adaptations of Asian horror are also discussed.

comics YA fiction Will appeal to scholars of feminism media history girlhood studies horror the Gothic etc Doubles and Hybrids in Latin American Gothic Antonio Alcalá González, Ilse Marie Bussing López, 2019-09-25 Doubles and Hybrids in Latin American Gothic focuses on a recurrent motif that is fundamental in the Gothic the double This volume explores how this ancient notion acquires tremendous force in a region Latin America which is itself defined by duplicity indigenous European autochthonous religions Catholic Despite this duplicity and at the same time because of it this region has also generated mestizaje or forms resulting from racial mixing and hybridity This collection then aims to contribute to the current discussion about the Gothic in Latin America by examining the doubles and hybrid forms that result from the violent yet culturally fertile process of colonization that took place in the area The Migration and Politics of Monsters in Latin American Cinema Gabriel Eljaiek-Rodríguez, 2018-09-26 The Migration and Politics of Monsters in Latin America proposes a cinematic cartography of contemporary Latin American horror films that take up the idea of the American continent as a space of radical otherness or monstrosity and use it for political purposes The book explores how Latin American film directors migrate foreign horror tropes to create cinematographic horror hybrids that reclaim and transform monstrosity as a form of historical rewriting By emphasizing the specificities of the Latin American experience this book contributes to broad scholarship on horror cinema at the same time connecting the horror tradition with contemporary discussions on violence migration fear of immigrants and the rewriting of colonial discourses Grand-Guignol Cinema and the Horror Genre Mario DeGiglio-Bellemare, 2023-02-14 Grand Guignol Cinema and the Horror Genre traces important contributions of the Parisian Grand Guignol theatre's Golden Age as theoretical considerations of embodiment and affect in the development of horror cinema in the twentieth century This study traces key components of the Grand Guignol stage as a means to explore the immersive and corporeal aspects of horror cinema from the sound period to today The book is a means to explore the Grand Guignol not only as a historical place and genre but also theoretically as a conceptual framework that opens up an affective mapping of Grand Guignol attractions in cinema This study's restoration of a long Grand Guignol tradition in cinema makes it a significant contribution to new theorizations of horror It brings seemingly disparate traditions into conversation as American Canadian French and Italian cinema are all important sites for thinking through cinematic embodiment These four countries have developed their own important genres and movements of Grand Guignol cinema the slasher the French Films of Sensation Canadian body horror and the giallo The Grand Guignol famously operated in a dead end of Chaptal Street in the Pigalle district of Paris this study offers affective and corporeal readings that open up new byways beyond the dead end of psychoanalytic readings that continues to be dominant in horror genre scholarship Image Embodiment Lars C. Grabbe, Patrick Rupert-Kruse, Norbert M. Schmitz, 2016-10-24 In the new media environment how are bodies and images related How can in other words the human body be integrated with and reformulated in relation to the sensory and perceptual dimension In response to this question Image Embodiment looks not just to images and surface appearances but addresses at a deeper level the media that act as the supports for aesthetics To think about visual culture in the twenty first century necessarily implies the thinking of the specific role of media technologies A view to media not only teases out the technical infrastructure of images but brings with it the potential for addressing the different sense modalities and realities of the human body Recent theories of the sensory turn are effectively highlighting innovative approaches for an autonomous image science and media theory in general Image Embodiment provides one part of the discourse to synchronize the concepts of image and body which is then able to connect the perspectives of philosophy of mind perceptual theory and media as well as image science This volume monitors and discusses the relation of media and the human body and refers to images embodiment and the sensory turn within the perspective of an autonomous image science Werewolves, Wolves and the Gothic, 2017-09-15 Wolves lope across Gothic imagination Signs of a pure animality opposed to humanity in the figure of the werewolf they become liminal creatures that move between the human and the animal Werewolves function as a site for exploring complex anxieties of difference of gender class race space nation or sexuality but the imaginative and ideological uses of wolves also reflect back on the lives of material animals long persecuted in their declining habitats across the world Werewolves therefore raise unsettling questions about the intersection of the real and the imaginary the instability of human identities and the worldliness and political weight of the Gothic This is the first volume concerned with the appearance of werewolves and wolves in literary and cultural texts from the mid nineteenth century to the present Drawing on representations of werewolves and wolves in literature film television and visual culture the essays investigate the key texts of the lycanthropic canon alongside lesser known works from the 1890s to the present The result is an innovative study that is both theoretically aware and historically nuanced featuring an international list of established and emerging scholars based in Britain Europe North America and Australia Latter-Day Saint Art Amanda K. Beardsley, Cayleff and Sakai Faculty Scholar Amanda Beardsley, Mason Kamana Allred, Assistant Professor of Communication Media and Culture Mason Allred, 2024 Latter day Saint Art A Critical Reader seeks to fill a substantial gap by providing a comprehensive examination of the visual art of the Latter day Saints from the nineteenth century to the present The volume includes twenty two essays examining art by for or about Mormons as well as over 200 high quality color illustrations Transnational Horror Cinema Sophia Siddique, Raphael Raphael, 2017-02-24 This book broadens the frameworks by which horror is generally addressed Rather than being constrained by psychoanalytical models of repression and castration the volume embraces M M Bakhtin s theory of the grotesque body For Bakhtin the grotesque body is always a political body one that exceeds the boundaries and borders that seek to contain it to make it behave and conform This vital theoretical intervention allows Transnational Horror Cinema to widen its scope to the social and cultural work of these global bodies of excess and the economy of their grotesque exchanges With this in mind the authors consider these bodies potentials to explore and perhaps to explode rigid cultural scripts of embodiment including gender race and ability Lost Highways, Embodied Travels: The

Road Movie in American Experimental Film and Video Kornelia Boczkowska, 2023-02-06 Often identified as one of the most genuine and enduring American film genres the road movie has never been explored in the context of experimental filmmaking To fill this gap Lost Highways Embodied Travels provides the first book length study of over eighty unique and often obscure films and videos and situates them within the corporeal turn in American avant garde cinema so far mostly associated with body genres and sexually explicit films Drawing on unpublished archival materials the book offers a fresh take on both past and current practices of the experimental film community for scholars students makers and film buffs

The Matrix of Visual Culture Patricia Pisters, 2003 This book explores Gilles Deleuze's contribution to film theory According to Deleuze we have come to live in a universe that could be described as metacinematic His conception of images implies a new kind of camera consciousness one that determines our perceptions and sense of selves aspects of our subjectivities are formed in for instance action images affection images and time images We live in a matrix of visual culture that is always moving and changing Each image is always connected to an assemblage of affects and forces This book presents a model as well as many concrete examples of how to work with Deleuze in film theory It asks questions about the universe as metacinema subjectivity violence feminism monstrosity and music Among the contemporary films it discusses within a Deleuzian framework are Strange Days Fight Club and Dancer in the Dark Affective Intensities and Evolving Horror Forms Daniel Adam Daniel, 2020-02-03 Horror cinema is a genre that is undergoing constant evolution from the sub genre of found footage to post cinematic new media forms such as Youtube horror horror video games and cinematic virtual reality horror By investigating how these new forms alter the dynamics of spectatorship this book charts how cinema's affective capacities have shifted in relation to these modifications in the forms of cinematic horror It applies a rich theoretical synthesis of phenomenological and Deleuzian approaches to a number of case studies including films like The Blair Witch Project Paranormal Activity and Creep as well as video games such as Alien Isolation and new media forms such as Youtube horror and virtual reality horror Knowing Nukes William Chaloupka, 1992 Grounded in representation agency irony cynicism and related topics central to literary criticism Knowing Nukes emphasizes the pervasive paradoxes within nuclear discourse advocating an approach that understands and does not simply recoil from the character of modern communication and the odd codes of strategic deterrence Walls Without Cinema Larrie Dudenhoeffer, 2020-11-12 This volume closely examines the near ubiquitous images of state security walls domes and other such defense enclosures flashing across movie screens since 2006 the year of the ratification of George W Bush's Secure Fence Act This study shows that many of the films of this era enable us to imaginatively test the effects of these security mechanisms on citizens immigrants refugees and other sovereign states challenging our commitment to constructing them maintaining them staffing them and subsidizing their enormous overheads With case studies ranging from Atomic Blonde and Ready Player One to Black Panther and Elysium Walls without Cinema serves as a timely counterpoint to the xenophobic rhetoric and abusive carceral security conditions that characterize the Trump administration's management of the Mexico-U.S. border situation
