EDITING KEY: Immigration and Ellis Island

Work 3

Immigration and Ellis Island

The greatest mass movement of people in history occurred between 1870 and 1900. During that time, more than twenty million people emigrated from Europe to the United States. People left their homelands for many reasons. Historians call these reasons "pushes". Pushes include natural disasters, crop failures, war, persecution, and poverty. A push might also be the urge for adventure or the desire for change. People who emigrate go to places where they think they will have a better happier future for themselves and their families. Sometimes, all these reasons push.
