Emir Kusturica Giorgio Bertellini, 2014-12-30 Emir Kusturica is one of Eastern Europe's most celebrated and influential filmmakers Over the course of a thirty year career Kusturica has navigated a series of geopolitical fault lines to produce subversive playful often satiric works On the way he won acclaim and widespread popularity while showing a genius for adjusting his poetic pitch shifting from romantic realist to controversial satirist to sentimental jester Leading scholar critic Giorgio Bertellini divides Kusturica's career into three stages dissention disconnection and dissonance to reflect both the historic and cultural changes going on around him and the changes his cinema has undergone He uses Kusturica's Palme d'Or winning Underground 1995 the famously inflammatory take on Yugoslav history after World War II as the pivot between the tone of romantic yet pungent critique of the director's early works and later journeys into Balkanist farce marked by slapstick and a self conscious primitivism Eschewing the one sided polemics Kusturica's work often provokes Bertellini employs balanced discussion and critical analysis to offer a fascinating and up to date consideration of a major figure in world cinema

Border Visions Jakub Kazecki, Karen A. Ritzenhoff, Cynthia J. Miller, 2013-06-13 Over the last several decades the boundaries of languages and national and ethnic identities have been shifting altering the notion of borders around the world Borderland areas such as East and West Europe the US Mexican frontera and the Middle East serve as places of cultural transfer and exchange as well as arenas of violent conflict and segregation As communities around the world merge across national borders new multi ethnic and multicultural countries have become ever more common Border Visions Identity and Diaspora in Film offers an overview of global cinema that addresses borders as spaces of hybridity and change In this collection of essays contributors examine how cinema portrays conceptions of borderlands informed by knowledge politics art memory and lived experience and how these constructions contribute to a changing global community These essays analyze a variety of international feature films and documentaries that focus on the lives cultures and politics of borderlands The essays discuss the ways in which conflicts and their resolutions occur in borderlands and how they are portrayed on film The volume pays special attention to contemporary Europe where the topic of shifting border identities is one of the main driving forces in the processes of European unification Among the filmmakers whose work is discussed in this volume are Fatih Akin Montxo Armend riz Cary Fukunaga Christoph Hochh usler Holger Jancke Emir Kusturica Laila Pakalnina Alex Rivera Larissa Shepitko Andrea Staka Elia Suleiman and Istv n Szab A significant contribution to the dialogue on global cinema Border Visions will be of interest to students and scholars of film but also to scholars in border studies gender studies sociology and political science     Post-Yugoslav Constellations Vlad Beronja,Stijn Vervaet,2016-01-15 Memory in the Balkans has often been described as binding authoritative and non negotiable functioning as a banner of war This book challenges such a one dimensional representation and offers a more nuanced analysis that accommodates frequently ignored instances of transnational solidarity dialogue communal mourning and working through a difficult past Exploring a broad range of memorial practices the book focuses on the ways in which cultural memory is mediated performed and critically reworked by literature and the arts in the former Yugoslavia Against the methodological nationalism of works that study Serbian Croatian or Bosniak culture as self contained this book examines post Yugoslav literature film visual culture and politicized art practices from a supranational angle Not solely focusing on traumatic memories but also exploring how post Yugoslav cultural practices mobilize memory for a politics of hope this volume moves beyond the trauma paradigm that still dominates memory studies In its scope and approach the book shows the relevance of the cultural memory of Eastern European citizens and the contribution they can offer to the building of Europe s shared cultural memory and transnational identity     Transnational French Studies Charles Forsdick,Claire Launchbury,2023-10-01 The contributors to Transnational French Studies situate this disciplinary subfield of Modern Languages in actively transnational frameworks The key objective of the volume is to define the core set of skills and methodologies that constitute the study of French culture as a transnational transcultural and translingual phenomenon Written by leading scholars within the field chapters demonstrate the type of inquiry that can be pursued into the transnational realities both material and non material that are integral to what is referred to as French culture The book considers the transnational dimensions of being human in the world by focussing on four key practices which constitute the object of study for students of French language and multilingualism the construction of transcultural places and the corresponding sense of space the experience of time and transnational subjectivities The underlying premise of the volume is that the transnational is present and has long been present throughout what we define as French history and culture

Chapters address instances and phenomena associated with the transnational from prehistory to the present opening up the geopolitical map of French studies beyond France and including sites where communities identified as French have formed

Directing scenes and senses Peter M Boenisch, 2015-08-01 As European theatre directors become a familiar presence on international stages and a new generation of theatre makers absorbs their impulses this study develops fresh perspectives on Regie the Continental European tradition of staging playtexts Leaving behind unhelpful clichés that pit above all the director against the playwright Peter M Boenisch stages playful encounters between Continental theatre and Continental philosophy The contemporary Regie work of Thomas Ostermeier Frank Castorf Ivo van Hove Guy Cassiers tg STAN and others here meets the works of Friedrich Schiller and Leopold Jessner Hegelian speculative dialectics and the critical philosophy of Jacques Rancière and Slavoj Žižek in order to explore the thinking of Regie how to think Regie and how Regie thinks This partial and sideways look invites a wider reconsideration of the potential of playing theatre today of its aesthetic possibilities and its political stakes in the global neoliberal economy of the twenty first century The Rough Guide to Film Rough
