Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved E.B. White Robert L. Root, 1999 Robert Root explores the milieu in which White began writing the Notes and Comments section of the New Yorker and puts in perspective the influence of popular columnists like Don Marquis and Christopher Morley on the tone and form of White's work as a paragrapher He examines White's persistent disaffection with the demands and limitations inherent in his Comment pieces for the New Yorker and his experiences as a columnist for Harper's Magazine where his One Man's Meat feature produced his most enduring essay Once More to the Lake and took the segmented column form to new levels of accomplishment Drawing on White's manuscripts Root's literary analysis of early drafts demonstrates how unique White's essays were Critical Essays on E.B. White Robert L. Root, 1994 The clipboards the children's books the letters assessments and bibliography of American writer White b 1899 are the topics of the 29 essays some commissioned for the collection and others reprinted No subject index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR One Man's Meat E. B. White, 2024-11-05 Too personal for an almanac too sophisticated for a domestic history and too funny and self-doubting for a literary journal One Man's Meat can best be described as a primer of a countryman's lessons a timeless recounting of experience that will never go out of style Letters of E. B. White, Revised Edition E. B. White, 2006-11-28 Originally edited by Dorothy Lobrano Guth and revised and updated by Martha White Foreword by John Updike These letters are of course beautifully written but above all personal precise and honest They evoke E B White's life in New York and in Maine at every stage of his life They are full of memorable characters White's family the New Yorker staff and contributors literary types and show business people farmers from Maine and sophisticates from New York Katherine S White Harold Ross James Thurber Alexander Woolcott Groucho Marx John Updike and many many more Each decade has its own look and taste and feel Places too from Belgrade Maine to Turtle Bay NYC to the S S Buford Alaska bound in 1923 are brought to life in White's descriptions There is no other book of letters to compare with this it is a book to treasure and savor at one's leisure As White wrote in this book A man who publishes his letters becomes nudist nothing shields him from the world's gaze except his bare skin a man who has written a letter is stuck with it for all time [Essays of E.b. White, 2019-05-07 A New York Times Book Review New Noteworthy Book For democracy's weary champions White's time-tested prose is a shot of adrenaline Madeleine Albright A collection of essays letters and poems from E B White one of the country's great literary treasures New York Times centered on the subject of freedom and democracy in America The special book includes an introduction by Pulitzer Prize-winning historian Jon Meacham I am a member of a party of one and I live in an age of fear These words were written by E B White in 1947 Decades before our current political turmoil White crafted eloquent yet practical political statements that continue to resonate There's only one kind of press that's any good he proclaimed a press free from any taint of the government He condemned the trend of defamation arguing that in doubtful doubting days national morality tends to slip and slide toward a condition in which the test of a man's honor is his zeal for discovering dishonor in others And on the spread of fascism he lamented fascism enjoys at the moment an almost perfect climate for growth a world of fear and hunger This concise collection of essays letters and poems from one of this country's most eminent literary voices offers much needed historical context for our current state of the nation and hope for the future of our society Speaking to Americans at a time of uncertainty when democracy itself has come under threat he reminds us As long as there is one upright man as long as there is one compassionate woman the scene is not desolate Essay of E.
