Essential Cinema An Introduction To Film Analysis:

Essential Cinema Jon Lewis, 2017-01-10 Succinct lively and affordable ESSENTIAL CINEMA AN INTRODUCTION TO FILM ANALYSIS vividly illustrates principles in action as it helps you develop effective skills in close analysis The book is packed with frame captures you can readily relate to and it also features interviews with film practitioners throughout giving you insight into real world practice In addition unique screening questions at the end of each chapter help you apply chapter concepts to any film you watch while the running glossary and end of text illustrated glossary offer easy access to full explanations of concepts This edition includes an updated card reflecting the new guidelines from the 2016 MLA HANDBOOK Eighth Edition      Essential Cinema Lewis, 2012      The New Woman's Film Hilary Radner, 2017-01-20 With the chick flick arguably in decline film scholars may well ask what has become of the woman's film Little attention has been paid to the proliferation of films often from the independent sector that do not sit comfortably in either the category of popular culture or that of high art films that are perhaps the corollary of the middle brow novel or smart chick flicks This book seeks to fill this void by focusing on the steady stream of films about and for women that emerge out of independent American and European cinema and that are designed to address an international female audience The new woman's film as a genre includes narratives with strong ties to the woman's film of classical Hollywood while constituting a new distinctive cycle of female centered films that in many ways continue the project of second wave feminism albeit in a modified form Topics addressed include The Bridges of Madison County Clint Eastwood 1995 the feature length films of Nicole Holofcener 1996 2013 the film roles of Tilda Swinton Rachel Getting Married Jonathan Demme 2008 Blue Jasmine Woody Allen 2013 Frances Ha Noah Baumbach 2012 Belle Amma Asante 2013 Fifty Shades of Grey Sam Taylor Johnson 2015 and Jane Campion's Top of the Lake Sundance Channel 2013      Writing in Film Studies, from Professional Practice to Practical Pedagogy Bryan Mead, 2024-01-09 A common refrain heard from instructors in offices across the world is that students have a hard time producing quality written discourse This is no different in the world of film studies where many undergraduate students struggle to cogently discuss the films they watch in class How can film instructors help students become better writers This book answers this question by first uncovering the disciplinary expectations we have for students and then offering strategies to explicitly teach those expectations in the classroom This book examines and identifies the disciplinary conventions of professional film studies discourse along with the expectations we have for student writing in undergraduate film courses What becomes clear from this analysis is that the pedagogical expectations we have for students are aligned with and shaped by professional writing in the discipline It helps to uncover the argument types instructors take for granted and helps those teaching undergraduate students not only to know what those expectations are but also how to use that knowledge to foster better student writing      Understanding Film James R Russo, 2021-01-12 This film analysis textbook contains sixteen essays on historically significant artistically superior films released between 1922 and 1982 Written for college high school and university students the essays cover central issues raised in today's cinema courses and provide students with practical models to help them improve their own writing and analytical skills This film casebook is geographically diverse with eight countries represented Italy France the United States Russia Germany Great Britain Japan and India The essays sophisticated yet not overly technical or jargon heavy are perfect introductions to their respective films as well as important contributions to the field of film studies in general The book's critical apparatus features credits images and bibliographies for all films discussed filmographies for the directors a glossary of film terms the elements of film analysis a chronology of film theory and criticism topics for writing and discussion a bibliography of film criticism and a comprehensive index Understanding Film A Viewers Guide bucks the trend of current film analysis texts few of which contain actual film analyses by promoting analysis of the chosen films alongside the methods and techniques of film analysis It has been prepared as a primary text for courses in film analysis and a supplementary text for courses such as Introduction to Film or Film Appreciation History of Film or Survey of Cinema and Film Directors or Film Style and Imagination

Twenty-One Landmark European Films 1939-1999 Bert Cardullo, 2015-04-01 The essays in this insightful film analysis text show cover twenty one of the best European films made between the coming of World War II and the end of the twentieth century showing what makes each of them outstanding These essays are clear and readable that is sophisticated and meaty yet not overly technical or jargon heavy They will make perfect introductions to their respective films as well as important contributions to the field of film studies in general Written with university students in mind these essays cover some of the central films treated and central issues raised in today's cinema courses and provide students with practical models to help them improve their own writing and analytical skills A list of questions for discussion is included to trigger further thinking among film buffs and to help educators prepare for class The book is aimed at students teachers and cinephiles with an interest in European cinema in particular and cinema studies in general as well as at those educated readers with an interest in the practice of film analysis and criticism The only competition comes from Stanley Kauffmann's relatively brief Ten Great Films 136 pp 2012 The current work offers twenty one illustrated essays Kauffmann's book contains no images and focuses on Europe The countries represented are France Italy England Hungary Belgium Sweden Scotland Denmark Russia Spain Germany Scotland and Finland Twenty One Landmark European Films 1939-1999 overlaps with Kauffmann's book only in the case of L'avventura though the two approach this film from vastly different angles Moreover the book provides a complete critical apparatus notes bibliographies credits and filmographies whereas Kauffmann's has none This book could be one of the primary texts for courses in film analysis to accompany a work like Timothy Corrigan's A Short Guide to Writing about Film 8th edition 2011 It would also be a suitable supplementary or secondary text in such courses as Introduction to Film or Film Appreciation Western European Cinema History of Film or Global Cinema and Film Directors or Film Style and Imagination

Hitchcock's Appetites Casey McKittrick, 2018-01-25 In Hitchcock's Appetites Casey McKittrick offers the first book length study of the relationship between Hitchcock's body size and his cinema Whereas most critics and biographers of the great director are content to consign his large figure and larger appetite to colorful anecdotes of his private life McKittrick argues that our understanding of Hitchcock's films his creative process and his artistic mind are incomplete without considering his lived experience as a fat man Using archival research of his publicity script collaboration and personal communications with his producers in tandem with close textual readings of his films feminist critique and theories of embodiment Hitchcock's Appetites produces a new and compelling profile of Hitchcock's creative life and a fuller more nuanced account of his auteurism

Visual Ethics Michael Schwartz, Howard Harris, 2018-05-31 This volume includes six varied contributions to the study of visual ethics in organizations The implications of our visual world for organizational life and personal behaviour have received scant research attention This volume sets out to address that lack of research

The New Generation in Chinese Animation Shaopeng Chen, 2021-09-23 In 1995 Chinese animated filmmaking ceased to be a state run enterprise and was plunged into the free market Using key animated films as his case studies Shaopeng Chen examines new generation Chinese animation in its aesthetic and industrial contexts He argues that unlike its predecessors this new generation does not have a distinctive national identity but represents an important stage of diversity and exploration in the history of Chinese animation Chen identifies distinct characteristics of new generation filmmaking including an orientation towards young audiences and the recurring figure of the immortal monkey like Sun Wukong He explores how films such as Lotus Lantern Baolian Deng 1999 responded to competition from American imports such as The Lion King 1994 retaining Chinese iconography while at the same time adopting Hollywood aesthetics and techniques Addressing the series Boonie Bears Xiong Chumo 2014 5 Chen focuses on the films adaptation from the original TV series and how the films were promoted across generations and by means of both online and offline channels Discussing the series Kuiba Kui Ba 2011 2013 2014 Chen examines Vasoon Animation Studio s ambitious attempt to create the first Chinese style high fantasy fictional universe and considers why the first film was a critical success but a failure at the box office He also explores the relationship between Japanese anime and new generation Chinese animation Finally Chen considers how word of mouth social media engagement lay behind the success of Monkey King Hero is Back 2015

Fashioning Horror Julia Petrov, Gudrun D. Whitehead, 2017-12-14 From Jack the Ripper to Frankenstein Halloween customs to Alexander McQueen collections Fashioning Horror examines how terror is fashioned visually symbolically and materially through fashion and costume in literature film and real life With a series of case studies that range from sensationalist cinema and Slasher films to true crime and nineteenth century literature the volume investigates the central importance of clothing to the horror genre and broadens our understanding of both material and popular culture Arguing that dress is fundamental to our understanding of character and setting within horror the chapters also reveal how the grotesque and horrific is at the center of fashion itself with its potential for instability disguise and carnivalesque subversion Packed with original research and bringing together a range of international scholars the book is the first to thoroughly examine the aesthetics of terror and the role of fashion in the construction of horror

Die Hard Jon Lewis, 2025-09-18 Upon its release John McTiernan s Die Hard 1988 was met with immense commercial and critical success breaking the 100 million mark at the box office in its first run and resulting in four Academy Award nominations Jon Lewis s study of the action classic closely examines the film s novel and script adaptation highlighting the influential role of producer Joel Silver He delves into Silver s ground breaking whammy theory which redefined script structure by organizing scripts around timed beats rather than traditional acts or scenes tracing its impact not only in Die Hard but also in other iconic franchises like Lethal Weapon Predator and The Matrix Lewis goes on to consider the film s evocation of post Vietnam male panic and its connection to the Iron John movement He highlights Die Hard as a prime example of the male rampage film genre where white male protagonists express frustration with cultural antagonists like feminism economic regulation government bureaucracy and political corruption Finally he reflects on how Die Hard resonated with its 1988 audience looking for new antagonists in a changing world The film s anticipation of European radical political groups and later terrorism rooted in North Africa and the Middle East foreshadows the era defining war on terror that would follow

Research Companion to Language and Country Branding Irene Theodoropoulou,Johanna Tovar,2020-11-16 Research Companion to Language and Country Branding brings together entirely new interdisciplinary research conducted by scholars working on various sociolinguistic semiotic anthropological and discursive analytical aspects of country branding all over the world Branding is a process of identity construction whereby countries gain visibility and put themselves on the world map as distinctive entities by drawing on their history culture economy society geography and their people Through branding countries aim not only at establishing their uniqueness but also and perhaps most importantly at attracting tourism investments high quality human capital as well as at forging financial military political and social alliances Against this backdrop this volume explores how countries and regions imagine and portray others and themselves in terms of gender ethnicity and diversity today as well as the past In this respect the book examines how branding differs from other related policies and practices such as nation building banal nationalism and populism This volume is an essential reference for students researchers and practitioners with an interest in country nation and place branding processes

Italian Science Fiction Simone Brioni,Daniele Comberiati,2019-07-18 This book explores Italian science fiction from 1861 the year of Italy s unification to the present day focusing on how this genre helped shape notions of Otherness and Normalness In particular Italian Science Fiction draws upon critical race studies postcolonial theory and feminist studies to explore how migration colonialism multiculturalism and racism have been represented in genre film and literature Topics include the role of science fiction in constructing a national identity the representation and self representation of alien immigrants in Italy the creation of internal Others such as southerners and Roma the intersections of gender and race discrimination and Italian science fiction s transnational dialogue with foreign science fiction This book reveals that though it is arguably a minor genre in Italy science fiction offers an innovative interpretive angle for rethinking Italian history and imagining future change in Italian society      Essential Cinema Jonathan Rosenbaum,2004-04-27 In his astute and deeply informed film reviews and essays Jonathan Rosenbaum regularly provides new and brilliant insights into the cinema as art entertainment and commerce Guided by a personal canon of great films Rosenbaum sees in the ongoing hostility toward the idea of a canon shared by many within the field of film studies a missed opportunity both to shape the discussion about cinema and to help inform and guide casual and serious filmgoers alike In Essential Cinema Rosenbaum forcefully argues that canons of great films are more necessary than ever given that film culture today is dominated by advertising executives sixty second film reviewers and other players in the Hollywood publicity machine who champion mediocre films at the expense of genuinely imaginative and challenging works He proposes specific definitions of excellence in film art through the creation a personal canon of both well known and obscure movies from around the world and suggests ways in which other canons might be similarly constructed Essential Cinema offers in depth assessments of an astonishing range of films established classics such as Rear Window M and Greed ambitious but flawed works like The Thin Red Line and Breaking the Waves eccentric masterpieces from around the world including Irma Vep and Archangel and recent films that have bitterly divided critics and viewers among them Eyes Wide Shut and A I He also explores the careers of such diverse filmmakers as Robert Altman Ra l Ruiz Frank Tashlin Elaine May Sam Fuller Terrence Davies Edward Yang Hou Hsiao hsien and Orson Welles In conclusion Rosenbaum offers his own film canon of 1 000 key works from the beginning of cinema to the present day A cogent and provocative argument about the art of film Essential Cinema is also a fiercely independent reference book of must see movies for film lovers everywhere      Literary Landscapes of Time Jobst Welge,Juliane Tauchnitz,2022-11-07 The volume asks how the literatures of the Americas and the Caribbean present multiple or internally differentiated spaces and how these are distinguished or traversed by different temporalities The historical and post colonial experiences of these areas turns them into especially fertile ground for the exploration of the connections between landscape geography and historical temporal palimpsests as well as the specificities of literary form The contributions are dedicated to individual yet conceptually interconnected studies of staggered multiple non simultaneous temporalities in modern and contemporary literature The volume adopts a comparative perspective throughout and intends to foster the dialogue between the study of Latin American and Caribbean literatures in Spanish Portuguese French and English Therefore the individual essays are not grouped according to geographical or linguistic areas but follow a trajectory from spatiotemporal constellations of the 19th century to ruined catastrophic landscapes and the geopoetic inscriptions of time in regions The essays should appeal to all readers interested in World Literature Hemispheric Studies as well as

temporal approaches to space and geography      STARZ Spartacus Antony Augoustakis, 2016-11-16 Gladiator rebel slave leader revolutionary the figure of Spartacus frequently serves as an icon of resistance against oppression in modern political movements while his legend has inspired numerous receptions over the centuries in many different media With its visually excessive style of graphic sex and CGI enhanced violence the four seasons of the premium cable television series STARZ Spartacus tells the story of the historical Thracian gladiator who led a slave uprising against the Roman Republican army from 73 to 71 BC STARZ Spartacus Reimagining an Icon on Screen is the first scholarly volume to explore the entirety of this critically acclaimed and commercially successful drama series This new volume brings together pioneering and provocative essays written by an international cast of leading classical scholars and experienced media critics Turning a sharp eye on the series historical framework visual and narrative style thematic overtones and interaction with contemporary popular culture this volume also engages with the authenticity of the production and considers its place in the tradition of epic films and television series set in ancient Rome At once both erudite and entertaining STARZ Spartacus Reimagining an Icon on Screen is an invaluable resource for both students and scholars eager to confront a new Spartacus as the hero of the slave revolt is recast for a twenty first century audience      Women in MathArt Shanna Dobson, 2024-12-06 This volume contains the proceedings from the first Women in MathArt Research Collaboration Conference for Women showcasing women mathematicians researching and curating creative pedagogies at the intersection of mathematics and the arts This volume contains contributions to mathart projects from student mentor teams and researchers in all stages of their careers The volume also contains survey articles on new mathart intersections such as neuroaesthetics generative design generative adversarial networks and Langlands Program New results of particular interest are diamond Langlands generative design in the geometrization of the local Langlands Program investigations of the grammatology and visual epistemology of perfectoid diamonds in mathematics as grammatological metaphor infinity category constructions of pro Generative Adversarial Networks infinity stackification of mathematical exigency condensing temporal logic with entropic categorizations perfectoid diamond holography neuroaesthetics in immunology Also included is the result to foster a more inclusive work community of mathematicians using the arts as a tool to bring more vulnerability and integrity to each individual s research life Readers are herein provided a rigorous overview of current mathart developments and future mathart projects
