Conceptual Models is an introductory text that examines the five dimensions of personal health: physical, social, emotional, intellectual, and spiritual. Each chapter provides context for the study of that dimension, includes examples of how experts think about that dimension, presents two or more models developed by scholars and professionals, discusses identifiable characteristics associated with each dimension, and by incorporating a variety of perspectives, The Dimensions of Health enables students to formulate their own answer to the question "What is health?" This text is perfect for use in conjunction with a personal health text or as a standalone for any personal health course. New Dimensions in Women's Health Linda Lewis

Alexander, Judith H. LaRosa, Helaine Bader, 2000 New Dimensions in Women's Health is a comprehensive overview of all major dimensions of women's health across the lifespan providing various perspectives such as historical epidemiological, sociocultural and clinical issues for each topic. Data driven chapters with an emphasis on prevention and informed decision making offer students broader sections of psychological dimensions, lifestyle and social dimensions, personal and sexual dimensions and healthy dimensions for older women in order to create an effective style and structure for understanding the components of women's health.
