Principles of marketing CRISTINA CALVO PORRAL ,JOHN L. STANTON,2017-03-08 Marketing reversed prior business logic 50 years ago and said the customer is king and the companies began to recognize that it was not just the product that was the most important aspect of their business Companies recognized that consumers had a myriad of choices of product offerings and marketing was responsible to ensure that the company s products had the benefits and attributes that customers wanted and were willing to pay for Today

considering the technology development which influences every function of the company the focus of the successful marketing oriented companies has changed from the customer is king to the customer is a dictator However and despite the new trends in marketing like any social science marketing has basic principles and these principles need to be considered when making any type of marketing decisions So the major step of a student of marketing whether it is a young university student or an experienced business executive is to understand the principles of marketing and reading the present book will be the first step in accomplishing this task This book describes these basic principles of marketing and while the authors recognize that each decision may be slightly different from any previous decision the rules or principles remain the same The present book presents these basic marketing principles and tries to capture the essence of practical and modern marketing today Therefore the purpose of Principles of Marketing is to introduce readers to the fascinating world of marketing today in an easy enjoyable and practical way offering an attractive text from which to learn about and teach marketing Marketing Services and Resources in Information Organizations Zhixian George Yi, 2017-09-20 With the rapid development of information and communication technology and increasingly intense competition with other organizations information organizations face a pressing need to market their unique services and resources and reach their user bases in the digital age Marketing Services and Resources in Information Organizations explores a variety of important and useful topics in information organisations based on the author's marketing courses and his empirical studies on Australian academic librarians perceptions of marketing services and resources This book provides an introduction to marketing the marketing process and marketing concepts research mix and branding and much more Readers will learn strategic marketing planning implementation and evaluation effective techniques for promoting services and resources and effective social media and Web 2.0 tools used to promote services and resources Marketing Services and Resources in Information Organizations is survey based theoretical and practical The advanced statistical techniques used in this book distinguish the findings from other survey research products in the marketing field and will be useful to practitioners when they consider their own marketing strategies This book provides administrators practitioners instructors and students at all levels with effective marketing techniques approaches and strategies as it looks at marketing from multiple perspectives Dr Zhixian George Yi is a Leadership Specialization Coordinator and Ph.D. supervisor in the School of Information Studies at Charles Sturt University Australia He received a doctorate in information and library sciences and a Ph.D. minor in educational leadership from Texas Woman's University and he was awarded his master's degree in information science from Southern Connecticut State University In 2009 he was awarded the Eugene Garfield Doctoral Dissertation Fellowship from Beta Phi Mu the International Library and Information Studies Honor Society He was selected for inclusion into Who's Who in America in 2010 Examines effective marketing techniques approaches and strategies Studies marketing from multiple perspectives Empirical based theoretical and practical Systematic and comprehensive Exploring Entrepreneurship Richard Blundel, Nigel
