The Negro Horace Smith Fulkerson,1887 Russian Montparnasse Maria Rubins,2015-09-29 This book reassesses the role of Russian Montparnasse writers in the articulation of transnational modernism generated by exile Examining their production from a comparative perspective it demonstrates that their response to urban modernity transcended the Russian master narrative and resonated with broader aesthetic trends in interwar Europe What Does It Mean to 'Make' Love? Gérard Pommier,2024-10-25 What Does It Mean to Make Love shows how the choice of gender does not conform to anatomy and is based on an often unrecognised psychic bisexuality Everyone chooses a gender by repressing another gender which becomes the site of both an attraction and a conflict a war of the sexes the contingencies of which animate desire G rard Pommier explores phantasy desire and perversion and their role in sexual machinery before considering the question of orgasm Pommier s work demonstrates that the analysis of orgasm brings out a political dimension and that aspects of both social and personal life are illuminated by the study of how we think consciously and unconsciously about orgasm and the role we ascribe to it This book makes valuable contributions to the study of sexuality and will be of interest to all psychoanalysts and students of psychoanalysis as well as those in the fields of gender studies anthropology and psychology
