Ethiopian Orthodox Matins:

The Traditional Teaching of the Ethiopian Orthodox Tāwahedo Church Christine Chaillot, 2023-11-06 Christine Chaillot's new book The Traditional Teaching of the Ethiopian Orthodox T wahedo Church Faith and Spirituality presents a topic that is little if at all known outside Ethiopia even in Christian circles. Moreover, it is a much neglected field in the wider study of African education. It is a teaching based on ancient texts and books taught orally to the students who will become the future clergy and who will then share their knowledge with the faithful in Church life. The studies of the different disciplines are pursued at different schools and at different levels in liturgy, theology, with commentaries of books, Old and New Testaments, books of the Church fathers and monks as well as composition of poems, genes, and iconography. All this teaching presented in the present volume is deeply related to the faith and spirituality of the Ethiopian Orthodox Church. This teaching is a unique intangible cultural heritage. One wonders, however, what its future will be in the context of the modern educational methods and social attitudes that have evolved in Ethiopia over the last half century. Ethiopian Christian Liturgical Chant: An Anthology, Part 3 Kay Kaufman Shelemay, Peter Jeffery, 1993-01-01 This three-volume anthology introduces the Ethiopian Christian musical tradition to performers, music scholars, and liturgists while addressing general problems of notation and oral tradition. Ethiopian Christian chant has been passed down both in an indigenous notational system and through oral transmission. This edition presents a selection of liturgical portions from the annual cycle in facsimiles of notated sources and in transcriptions from modern performances. Supplementing the edition is a complete dictionary of notational signs with equivalents in modern notation and a set of charts tracing the notational history of each liturgical portion through a sample of Ethiopian manuscripts. The Ethiopian Orthodox Church 'A'emero Wandem'agañahu, Aymro Wondmagegnehu, 1970

Liturgical Time and Space Anscar J. Chupungco, 2000 The final volume in the Handbook for Liturgical Studies series, Volume V Liturgical Time and Space, contains the concluding material for an integral study of the liturgy. It opens with a preliminary notion of time and space before discussing in detail three types of liturgical celebrations on which time and space have a direct and particular bearing. The first of these is the Liturgy of the Hours. This topic is developed in the light of the early Christian tradition until the fourth century and its subsequent forms in both East and West. The second is the Liturgical Year, traditionally called the anni circulas. The development of the Liturgical Year during the first four centuries is reviewed. This is followed by a detailed study of the Byzantine, Roman, and non-Roman Western tradition. It concludes with the theology and spirituality of the Liturgical Year wherein the mystery of Christ as a saving event is made present in time so that the faithful may lay hold of it through the Word and the sacraments. The theology of liturgical space is drawn from the mutual interaction between the assembled community which gives meaning to the place of assembly and the place itself which upholds and signifies community. starting point for The Covenant's Veil Ethiopia's story of the covenant is a domain of nested reference points that inspires celebrants through their devotional activities to expand and elaborate upon a network of meanings Covenant refractions within Ethiopian Orthodox devotional culture not only demonstrate the established pattern of magnifying spiritual importance through symbolic similes and analogic pairings but perform a vital function for keeping traditional knowledge alive and current Detailed ethnographic material arranges devotional activities such as mahaber rituals of communing and processions of tabots on feast days It describes habits of making vows presenting oneself at church and telling stories of saints and their covenants Thinking about the covenant concept as refracting the bending motion of points encountering a common surface is a way to conceive how these reference points reveal a connective thread what is theorized as an Ethiopian Orthodox method of elaboration Identifying when and where elaboration of tradition is happening provides an opportunity to demonstrate how Orthodox Christianity is integral to the lives and actions of its faithful By reframing covenant as expanding beyond Ethiopian religious and political exceptionalism The Covenant's Veil provides us with a timely reappraisal of this concept in light of increased social fragmentation and the urgency for negotiating harmony in a country with many forms of diversity
