outlets have shuttered their foreign bureaus and print operations the role of GNNs as information collectors and policy influencers has changed in tandem Western GNNs are honored for being untethered to government entities and their ability to produce accurate yet critical situational analyses However with the emergence of non Western GNNs and their direct relationships to the state the independent nature of our global news cycle has been vastly manipulated In Spin Wars and Spy Games Kounalakis uses his interviews with an expansive and diverse set of GNN professionals to deliver a vivid depiction of the momentous sea change in mass media production He traces the evolution of global news networks from the twentieth century to now revealing today s drastically altered news business model that places precedence on networks leveraging global power This eye opening narrative transforms our understanding of why countries like Russia and China invest heavily in their news media and how the GNN framework operates in conjunction with state strategy and diplomatic sensitivity Profoundly meticulous and insightful this seminal work on the current state of transnational journalism gives readers a first hand look at how global media powers shape policy and morph the public s consumption of information African Philosophy Kwasi Wiredu, 2008-04-15 This volume of newly commissioned essays provides comprehensive coverage of African philosophy ranging across disciplines and throughout the ages Offers a distinctive historical treatment of African philosophy Covers all the main branches of philosophy as addressed in the African tradition Includes accounts of pre colonial African philosophy and contemporary political thought Ethiopian Labour Migration to the Gulf and South Africa Kefale, Asnake, Mohammed, Zerihun, 2016-05-11 The major objective of the research is to produce evidence based knowledge on the social and economic impacts of labour migration by looking at the challenges and opportunities of Ethiopian labour migration to the Gulf and South Africa On the one hand international migration from Ethiopia could be considered as an aspect of development problem The major push factors that forces Ethiopian migrants to the Gulf and South Africa are economic developmental problems ranging from lack of employment opportunities to wage differentials On the other hand international migration could be considered as an important resource that could be tapped for accelerating socio economic development At the general level this research aims to examine the successes and failures of policies and institutions in realising the potentials of international migration for socio economic development of the country and minimizing its adverse impacts At the same time the growing problem of illegal migration will be examined California Soul Jacqueline Cogdell DjeDje,Eddie S. Ambaye, 2015-02-13 This thesis provides a new approach to the Ethiopian Land Law debate The basic argument made in this thesis is that even if the Ethiopian Constitution provides and guarantees common ownership of land together with the state to the people this right has not been fully realized whether in terms of land accessibility enjoyability and payment of fair compensation in the event of expropriation Expropriation is an inherent power of the state to acquire land for public purpose activities It is an important development tool in a country such as Ethiopia where expropriation remains the only method to acquire land Furthermore the two preconditions of payment of fair compensation and existence of public purpose justifications are not strictly followed in Ethiopia The state remains the sole beneficiary of the process by capturing the full profit of land value while paying inadequate compensation to those who cede their land by expropriation Secondly the broader public purpose power of the state in expropriating the land for unlimited activities puts the property owners under imminent risk of expropriation Democratic Assistance to Post-conflict Ethiopia Dessalegn Rahmato, Meheret Ayenew, 2004 This study illustrates that assistance to human rights has been instrumental in the emergence of a voluntary sector in Ethiopia Humanitarian assistance and socio economic development have been notable too however assistance to democratisation has been limited in part due to the failure of political parties to broaden their power base In contrast there have been some notable local achievements in areas such as elections and press freedom

Diasporas, Development and Peacemaking in the Horn of Africa Liisa Laakso, Petri Hautaniemi, 2014-08-14 Exiled populations who increasingly refer to themselves as diaspora communities hold a strong stake in the fate of their countries of origin In a world becoming ever more interconnected they engage in long distance politics towards send financial remittances to and support social development in their homelands Transnational diaspora networks have thus become global forces shaping the relationship between countries regions and continents This important intervention written by scholars working at the cutting edge of diaspora and conflict challenges the conventional wisdom that diaspora are all too often warmongers their time abroad causing them to become more militant in their engagement with local affairs Rather they can and should be a force for good in bringing peace to their home countries Featuring in depth case studies from the Horn of Africa including Somalia and Ethiopia this volume presents an essential rethinking of a key issue in African politics and development
