Feathers By Jacqueline Woodson:

Feathers Jacqueline Woodson, 2009-01-08 When a new white student nicknamed The Jesus Boy joins her sixth grade class in the winter of 1971 Frannie's growing friendship with him makes her start to see some things in a new light

Jacqueline Woodson Laura Sullivan, 2014-08-01 Coretta Scott King Award winner and Newbery honoree Woodson's works including Miracle's Boys have strong African American themes Wish I Might Coleen Murtagh Paratore, 2012-06-01 It's a sparkling magical summer for Willa It's July on Cape Cod and Willa Havisham isn't so happy about her boyfriend JFK being away all summer at baseball training camp With best friend Tina and Ruby edging her out lately Willa wonders what the summer will bring It turns out there are plenty of surprises in store For one there's been a mermaid sighting There's also a boy named Will who claims to be her long lost brother He shares Willa's sea blue eyes but Willa wonders what secrets he's hiding and what this news will mean for her famous wedding planner mother It's going to be a summer filled with fireworks for sure

Saving Marty Paul Griffin, 2018-09-18 Fans of Because of Winn-Dixie will adore this warm and heart wrenching story of the friendship between a boy and a pig who thinks it's a dog Eleven year old Lorenzo Ventura knows heroes are rare like his father who died in the war or his friend Paloma Lee who fearlessly pursues her dream of being a famous musician Renzo would never describe himself as a hero but his chance comes when he adopts Marty a runt piglet Marty is extraordinary he thinks he's a dog and acts like one too and his bond with Renzo is truly one of a kind At first the family farm seems like the perfect home for Marty but as he approaches 350 pounds it becomes harder for Renzo to convince his mom that a giant pig makes a good pet So when Marty causes a dangerous and expensive accident Renzo knows Marty's time is up He'd do anything and everything for his best friend but will everything be enough to save Marty Paul Griffin masterfully melds the heartrending and the hopeful in this unforgettable story about the power of friendship and the unsung heroes all around us

Fictions of Integration Naomi Lesley, 2017-03-03 This book examines how children's and young adult literature addresses and interrogates the legacies of American school desegregation Such literature narrates not only the famous battles to implement desegregation in the South in places like Little Rock Arkansas but also more insidious and less visible legacies such as re-segregation within schools through the mechanism of disability diagnosis Novelizations of children's experiences with school desegregation comment upon the politics of getting African American children access to white schools but more than this as school stories they also comment upon how structural racism operates in the classroom and mutates over the course of decades through the pedagogical practices depicted in literature for young readers Lesley combines approaches from critical race theory disability studies and educational philosophy in order to investigate how the educational market simultaneously constrains how racism in schools can be presented to young readers and also provides channels for radical critiques of pedagogy and visions of alternative systems The volume examines a range of titles from novels that directly engage the Brown v Board of Education decision such as Sharon Draper's Fire From the Rock and

Dorothy Sterling's Mary Jane to novels that engage less obvious legacies of desegregation such as Cynthia Voigt's Dicey's Song Sharon Flake's Pinned Virginia Hamilton's The Planet of Junior Brown and Louis Sachar's Holes This book will be of interest to scholars of American studies children's literature and educational philosophy and history When Friendship Followed Me Home Paul Griffin, 2017-07-18 If you have middle schoolers who are too young to fully grasp John Green's The Fault in Our Stars and love dogs give them this sweet tearjerker School Library Journal In this beguiling tearjerker a foster kid's luck slowly changes after he befriends a scruffy pup he finds outside the library People magazine Ben Coffin has never been one for making friends As a former foster kid he knows people can up and leave without so much as a goodbye Ben prefers to spend his time with the characters in his favorite sci fi books until he rescues an abandoned mutt from the alley next door to the Coney Island Library Scruffy little Flip leads Ben to befriend a fellow book lover named Halley yes like the comet a girl unlike anyone he has ever met Ben begins thinking of her as Rainbow Girl because of her crazy colored clothes and her laugh pure magic the kind that makes you smile away the stormiest day Rainbow Girl convinces Ben to write a novel with her But as their story unfolds Ben's life begins to unravel and Ben must discover for himself the truth about friendship and the meaning of home Racism in Contemporary African American Children's and Young Adult Literature Suriyan Panlay, 2016-10-25 Applying critical race theory to contemporary African American children's and young adult literature this book explores one key racial issue that has been overlooked both in race studies and literary scholarship internalised racism By systematically examining the issue of internalised racism and its detrimental psychological effects particularly towards the young and vulnerable this book defamiliarises the very racial issue that otherwise has become normalised in American racial discourse reaffirming the relevance of race racism and racialisation in contemporary America Through readings of works by Jacqueline Woodson Sharon G Flake Tanita S Davis Sapphire Rosa Guy and Nikki Grimes Suriyan Panlay develops a new critical discourse on internalised racism by studying its effects on marginalised children its manifestations and the fictional narrative strategies that can be used to regain and reclaim a sense of self Integrating African American Literature in the Library and Classroom Dorothy Littlejohn Guthrie, 2011-09-14 In this book African American literature is illuminated through a project based curriculum that incorporates national curriculum standards It is important that the school curriculae be representative of the diversity of the American student population Integrating African American Literature in the Library and Classroom is designed to help teachers and librarians achieve that goal The book recommends and annotates more than 200 titles that touch on African American life from slavery through the present time most of them by black authors and many of them winners of the Coretta Scott King Caldecott and or Newbery awards This guide offers cross curricular lesson plans for grades K 12 Each chapter identifies areas in which instructional attention is most needed to help students develop a greater appreciation for diversity perseverance and ethnicity Examples and ideas for activities are offered to reinforce related concepts With this book teachers and librarians will be better able to motivate and inform helping
