Feels Like The First Time English Edition:

Teaching Social Justice Using Postcolonial Texts Geraldine Balzer, Teresa Strong-Wilson, Anne Burke, 2023-07-28

This book explores how teachers can re-examine their emotional investments in enacting dominant settler values through changing their text selection and teaching practices. Based on a longitudinal qualitative research study conducted by a national team of literacy scholars in collaboration with practicing literacy teachers at eight sites across Canada, the book investigates how groups of teachers working collaboratively in inquiry groups develop and implement curriculum to promote their own and their students' understandings of social justice in postcolonial and settler spaces. In particular, the book highlights the rich and dynamic landscape of postcolonial authors, illustrators, and texts; the development of culturally sensitive curricula and critical pedagogies possible in addressing contemporary and historical issues both local and global. This book is primarily of interest to literacy scholars, literacy instructors, teacher educators in teacher education programs, educational leaders, practicing teachers from the K-12 spectrum, and school district staff and policy makers with responsibilities for or interests in the potential of literacy and literature engagement for social justice education. The book is also of interest to postsecondary educators and teacher educators wishing to use literature in social justice, anti-racist, and anti-oppressive courses.

Inclusive Education Keith Ballard, 2002-11-01. The aim of this text is to convey the experience of excluded children, their parents, teachers, and remaining classmates. Looking at all those involved, the book offers reflections on inclusion and exclusion in the context of schools that do not cater well for diversity. The contributors and issues raised are international, giving the reader everything necessary for considering concepts and practices across countries and cultures and highlighting ways in which schools might bring down the barriers to participation and learning.

Walking in the Garden with God Lydia B. Miller, 2023-04-23. Our Walk with the Lord begins when we take our first step in faith by believing that Jesus is who he says he is. Thereafter, day after day, we willingly take up our cross and attempt to follow in his footsteps, finding out all too soon that The Way is not easy. Some will not understand our belief in the invisible God. They will consider us fools and secretly despise us for claiming to see what they cannot. While they may be blind to his presence, we see God everywhere and in everything. Ours is a life-long spiritual journey which tests our strength, courage, faith, and convictions. While it may seem that we are walking alone, we are not. The Lord is always with us. Look around my friends; there are other Believers, each walking at their own pace, some far ahead while others trail behind. Occasionally, someone comes along who falls into step and walks the long road with us. Know that they have been intentionally sent by God to pick us up when we stumble and fall, get lost, or become discouraged. We need their uplifting prayers, encouragement, and testimonies of faith to remind us never to give up hope. This book is about my walk with The Lord. However, I believe the sentiments expressed are not mine alone but universal to Christians everywhere. It is my hope that the words God has given me will also minister to you as you walk your walk.

Y.G.More,2025-06-22 Alessia Ambitious architecture student Her ambition burns bright but so do old wounds She s fierce determined and hiding a past that refuses to stay buried Aiden cold ruthless and becomes her enemy the moment they meet As sparks fly and tensions rise a dark mystery pulls them into a web of secrets neither is ready to face Haunted by a man named Adrian who is the source of her deepest trauma and she must confront the past to survive the future In this gripping tale of enemies to lovers Obsession and hidden pain love isn t a salvation it s a battlefield Book one of a powerful duology that explores how healing can begin in the darkest places Early Stories Kiran Bhat,2013-04-20 Collected here are 31 stories written by Kiran Bhat between his college days and his first experiences traveling in Europe The early work of a promising young writer these stories demonstrate Bhat s commitment to stylistic experimentation while telling stories of heart and gravity inside the heads of people of various ethnicity gender and locale Party at the Ballot Box Melissa R.

Michelson,Stephanie L. DeMora,Sarah V. Hayes,2025-09-30 How the Party at the Mailbox efforts in 2020 2024 led by Black Girls Vote used celebrations of community to increase voter turnout Black voters continue to transform America s electoral landscape and can play a powerful role in determining the outcome of elections In Party at the Ballot Box Melissa R Michelson Stephanie L DeMora and Sarah V Hayes explore the impact of celebratory voter mobilization campaigns led by Black led organizations on Black turnout particularly as more states embrace voting by mail Focusing on the Party at the Mailbox PATM initiative coordinated by Black Girls Vote Michelson DeMora and Hayes underscore what exactly motivates Black voters to show up to the polls Using community based informational and celebratory packages of materials and with a mixed methods approach that includes randomized controlled trials surveys interviews and focus groups they show us how the PATM pilot increased Black turnout in Baltimore by double digits in the 2020 primaries Despite voting by mail while sheltering in place PATM made voters feel part of something bigger than themselves that they were voting as a community The successful pilot led to further PATM efforts in Atlanta Baltimore Detroit Richmond and Philadelphia between November 2020 and November 2024 Ultimately the authors argue that Black Americans vote as a celebration of community and that cultivating that sense of community is an effective means of increasing Black voter turnout With a foreword by Nykidra Robinson founder of Black Girls Vote Party at the Ballot Box provides insights into Black voter turnout and its larger implications
