

IN THE END ZONE

BY THOMAS REEDER

For Washington high school football, the start of the fall season and the end of the school year. And this year did not disappoint.

The 1994 football team went undefeated the entire season, making up an overwhelming total of eleven victories and a whopping 300-point season record. The team went on to place first in the district and first in the state — a first for Washington High and the new standard for all teams.

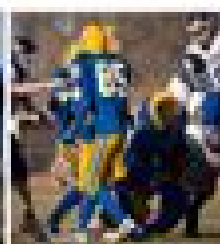

The hardest game of the season was against Washington's long-term rivals, Everett High, in which the team pulled out ahead in the final minutes of the game.

"We worked very hard as a team, and we saw results. I think everyone would agree that this season was the best we've ever had." — Tom Reeder

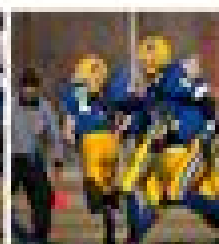

The 1994 team was not far behind in the history of the season, winning 11 games and scoring 300 points.

Few aspects of American military history have been as vigorously debated as Harry Truman's decision to use atomic bombs against Japan. In this carefully crafted volume, Michael Kort describes the wartime circumstances and thinking that form the context for the decision to use these weapons, surveys the major debates related to that decision, and provides a comprehensive collection of key primary source documents that illuminate the behavior of the United States and Japan during the closing days of World War II. Kort opens with a summary of the debate over Hiroshima as it has evolved since 1945. He then provides a historical overview of the events in question, beginning with the decision and program to build the atomic bomb. Detailing the sequence of events leading to Japan's surrender, he revisits the decisive battles of the Pacific War and the motivations of American and Japanese leaders. Finally, Kort examines ten key issues in the discussion of Hiroshima and guides readers to relevant primary source documents, scholarly books, and articles.

Newsire, 1998 The Fookien Times Yearbook, 1960 Gary's West Side John C. Trafny, 2006-02-01

In this pictorial history, visit the Horace Mann West Side neighborhood of Gary, Indiana, through four generations of the Steel City. Though Gary was an industrial city founded by U.S. Steel, the Horace Mann neighborhood evolved into one of the most exclusive residential areas in northwest Indiana. Skilled craftsmen from the mills were able to live among doctors and lawyers, as well as businessmen and supervisors from U.S. Steel. From the boom years of the 1920s through the 1960s, residents of diverse economic backgrounds sent their children to the same schools, prayed together in the same houses of worship, and shopped in Gary's popular downtown. Gary's West Side: The Horace Mann Neighborhood is a pictorial history spanning four generations of one of the Steel City's premier residential districts. Through archival photographs, family snapshots provided by former residents, and shared memories, the reader is taken on a nostalgic journey from the city's founding in 1906 through to the 21st century.
