Make Your People Before You Make Your Products Paul Turner, Danny Kalman, 2014-09-09 Your people hold the key to your business success Make Your People Before You Make Your Products is an authoritative guide to the evolution of talent management Written specifically for HR professionals this book describes how organizations can gain a global competitive edge through better management of talent resources With a practice based philosophy readers will learn more effective talent management strategies for a complex market in which people are often the only competitive advantage Inclusivity is emphasized and discussion centres on innovative dynamic fluid approaches to talent acquisition development and retention In today s market environment talent has moved from audience to community while leadership has shifted from control to empowerment Traditional linear approaches to talent management are falling short and directing resources solely to senior management and HIPOs is no longer a valid strategy This book provides practical guidance on more modern approaches helping organizations to Attract and retain the best talent by expanding talent resource management Augment traditional management methods with more dynamic techniques Develop a talent strategy that recognizes the new diversity of supply and demand Consider the evolving roles of talent and leadership in a global context Contextual changes in workplace dynamics necessitate an updated approach for keeping the best people on board and using them to their utmost potential Talent management is a driving force behind an organization s success affecting outcomes by every major metric if the strategy becomes stale success is no longer sustainable Make Your People Before You Make Your Products is guide toward developing an organization s greatest asset

Dislocating the Orient Daniel Foliard, 2017-04-13 While the twentieth century s conflicting visions and exploitation of the Middle East are well documented the origins of the concept of the Middle East itself have been largely ignored With Dislocating the Orient Daniel Foliard tells the story of how the land was brought into being exploring how maps knowledge and blind ignorance all participated in the construction of this imagined region Foliard vividly illustrates how the British first defined the Middle East as a geopolitical and cartographic region in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries through their imperial maps Until then the region had never been clearly distinguished from the East or the Orient In the course of their colonial activities however the British began to conceive of the Middle East as a separate and distinct part of the world with consequences that continue to be felt today As they reimagined boundaries the British produced disputed and finally dramatically transformed the geography of the area both culturally and physically over the course of their colonial era Using a wide variety of primary texts and historical maps to show how the idea of the Middle East came into being Dislocating the Orient will interest historians of the Middle East the British empire cultural geography and cartography

Ageing Issues in India Mala Kapur Shankardass, 2021-12-01 This book explores various practices and policies related to ageing issues in India It addresses ageing concerns from a theoretical and empirical viewpoint with in depth analyses of existential dimensions of ageing It provides deep insights into ageing in India by discussing demographics related to health and social differentials gender concerns retirement problems epidemiological transition taking place in the country with rising problem of dementia and mental health problems It consists of 23 chapters written by various established as well as upcoming scholars in the field The authors cover a broad range of topics with regard to provisions for institutional care geriatric practice and emerging issues of elder abuse The book will appeal to professionals and to lay people getting interested in ageing India from a social health gender economic psychological and emotional aspects The Poverty of Television Jonathan Corpus Ong,2015-05-15 Based on a 20 month ethnographic study of television and audiences in class divided Philippines this is the first book to take a bottom up approach in considering how people respond to images and narratives of suffering and poverty on television The book aims to contribute to the broader project of de Westernizing media studies and explore the tension between ethical prescription and anthropological description in the social sciences and humanities Winner of the 2016 Philippine Social Science Council Excellence in Research Award NCERT Geography Class 12 Dr. Chaturbhuj Mamoriya ,Dr. Abha Singh,2025-03-07 Part A Fundamentals of Human Geography 1 Human Geography Nature and Scope 2 Population of the World Distribution Density and Growth 2A Population Composition 3 Human Development 4 Primary Activities 5 Secondary Activities 6 Tertiary and Quaternary Activities 7 Transport and Communication 8 International Trade 8A Human Settlements Part B India People and Economy 1 Population Distribution Density Growth and Composition 1A Migration Types Causes and Consequences 1B Human Development 2 Human Settlements 3 Land Resources and Agriculture 4 Water Resources 5 Mineral and Energy Resources 5A Manufacturing Industries 6 Planning and Sustainable Development in Indian Context 7 Transport and Communication 8 International Trade 9 Geographical Perspective on Selected Issues and Problems Part C Practical Work 1 Data Source and Collection 2 Data Processing 3 Graphical Representation of Data 3A Use of Computer in Data Processing and Mapping 3B Field Surveys 4 Spatial Information Technology Competency Focused Questions with Answers Board Examination Papers The Price of Nuclear Power Stephanie A. Malin,2015-05-21 Rising fossil fuel prices and concerns about greenhouse gas emissions are fostering a nuclear power renaissance and a revitalized uranium mining industry across the American West In The Price of Nuclear Power environmental sociologist Stephanie Malin offers an on the ground portrait of several uranium communities caught between the harmful legacy of previous mining booms and the potential promise of new economic development Using this context she examines how shifting notions of environmental justice inspire divergent views about nuclear power s sustainability and equally divisive forms of social activism Drawing on extensive fieldwork conducted in rural isolated towns such as Monticello Utah and Nucla and Naturita Colorado as well as in upscale communities like Telluride Colorado and incorporating interviews with community leaders environmental activists radiation regulators and mining executives Malin uncovers a fundamental paradox of the nuclear renaissance the communities most hurt by uranium s legacy such as high rates of cancers respiratory ailments and reproductive disorders were actually quick to support industry renewal She shows that many impoverished communities support mining not only because of the employment opportunities but also out of a personal identification with uranium a sense of patriotism and new notions of environmentalism But other communities such as Telluride have become sites of resistance skeptical of industry and government promises of safe mining fearing that regulatory enforcement won't be strong enough Indeed Malin shows that the nuclear renaissance has exacerbated social divisions across the Colorado Plateau threatening social cohesion Malin further illustrates ways in which renewed uranium production is not a socially sustainable form of energy development for rural communities as it is utterly dependent on unstable global markets The Price of Nuclear Power is an insightful portrait of the local impact of the nuclear renaissance and the social and environmental tensions inherent in the rebirth of uranium mining

Protests as Events Ian R Lamond, Karl Spracklen, 2014-11-05 Can activism be considered a leisure activity Can the Occupy movement local campaigns for change and lone acts of personal resistance be understood as events Within the field of Events Management the content of events is generally analyzed within three categories culture sport or business Such a typology can be helpful as a heuristic for interpretation and analysis within a commercial paradigm However this framework overlooks and depoliticizes a significant variety of events those more accurately construed as protest Protests as Events is the first book to explore activism as a leisure activity and protests as events using a fresh interpretation of event to develop a new critical politics of events and leisure Bringing together a range of cutting edge research from around the world it explores a variety of protests through the lens of events studies and leisure in order to understand how the study of events management might be conceptualized in the protest space

Matching Visibility and Performance Nian Cai Liu, Ying Cheng, Qi Wang, 2016-11-25 The concept of world class universities WCU has increasingly gained popularity in the past two decades around the world WCU are regarded as cornerstone institutions of any academic system and imperative to develop a nation's competitiveness in the global knowledge economy The development of such universities is high on the policy agenda of various stakeholders worldwide in both developed and developing countries and regions and at both national and institutional levels to promote their global competitiveness Visibility and performance are among the most watched concepts in relation to develop WCUs but remain complicated in nature and with no agreed upon definitions Existing literature have focused on how to raise universities prestige status impact and rankings in the global and regional arena on the one hand and how to enhance universities quality efficiency effectiveness and academic output on the other However whether visibility is a legitimate indicator of performance or vice versa is yet to be answered Matching Visibility and Performance A Standing Challenge for World Class Universities provides insights of developing academic excellence from global national and institutional perspectives and intends to stimulate discussion on how universities can be globally visible and locally engaged and how visibility and performance can be integrated and balanced in practice

Grade Geography Scope November 2014: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Grade Geography Scope November 2014 : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
