Grade Afrikaans Short Stories

Hein Viljoen, C. N. Van der Merwe

Grade Afrikaans Short Stories:

Storyscapes Hein Viljoen, C. N. Van der Merwe, 2004 In Storyscapes we listen carefully to what South African writers reveal about themselves and their relations to South African space since the democratic transition of 1994. One main focus is the power of stories to uncover contradictory processes and investments of identity and to point readers toward a more meaningful life. Another main focus is the complexities of the post colonial understanding of South African land, landscape and space. Space in relation to race, class and gender identity figures prominently in analyses and comparisons of diverse South African texts such as Breyten Breytenbach's Dog Heart, Andr Brink's Imaginations of Sand, as well as the important South African subgenre of the farm novel. Questions of black or hybrid identity are highlighted by confronting older texts with new ones by black and women writers such as A. H. M. Scholtz and E. K. M. Dido. These texts and a number of Afrikaans texts that are less well known in the English speaking world are set in the wider frameworks of postcolonial criticism and global issues of cultural identity. South African Language Rights Monitor 2011 / Suid-Afrikaanse Taalregtemonitor 2011 Johan Lubbe, Theodorus du Plessis, 2016-01-05 The SALRM 2011 provides a rich source of information on a range of language related subjects. A prominent issue remains the changing of street and place names including the Pretoria Tshwane and Louis Trichardt. Makhado sagas. Language in education remains a thorny issue as medium of instruction at school and tertiary level and the proposal that passing an African language should be a requirement in order to obtain a tertiary degree in South Africa. In terms of language legislation the draft version of the National Language Act was proposed. The language of record in courts also received attention in the media. The Education Gazette of the Province of the Cape of Good Hope Cape of Good Hope (South Africa). Education Department, 1928 African Short Stories in English Jean de Grandsaigne, 1985 Teaching Mathematics in Multilingual Classrooms J.B. Adler, 2005-12-21 Increasingly teachers all over the world are grappling on a daily basis with the fact of multilingual classrooms. In this book Jill Adler captures three inter related dilemmas that lie at the heart of teaching mathematics in multilingual classrooms. Adler's identification and naming of the dilemma of code switching, the dilemma of mediation and the dilemma of transparency arise from exploring the realities of actual classrooms and are shaped by a perspective of teaching as a social practice. Adler provides a sharp analysis and strong theoretical grounding for her work pulling together research related to the relationship between language and mathematics, communicating mathematics and mathematics in bi multilingual settings. In so doing she offers a direct challenge to dominant research on communication in mathematics classrooms that has othered the multilingual setting in its normalisation of the monolingual classroom. The norm is a multicultural one. Set in contemporary South Africa, a context of linguistic diversity and rapid change, this book offers a spotlight whose beam is wide enough to illuminate dilemmas at work in all mathematics classrooms. My heart in your hands Naitsikile Iizyenda, Jill Kinahan, 2020-07-23 My heart in your hands is a platform for poets in Namibia to speak out.
