Austin, 2011-01-11 Covering interesting and varied philosophical terrain Cycling Philosophy for Everyone explores in a fun but critical way the rich philosophical cultural and existential experiences that arise when two wheels are propelled by human energy Incorporates or reflects the views of high profile and notable past professional cyclists and insiders such as Lennard Zinn Scott Tinley and Lance Armstrong Features contributions from the areas of cultural studies kinesiology literature and political science as well as from philosophers Includes enlightening essays on the varieties of the cycling experience ranging from the ethical issues of success women and cycling environmental issues of commuting and the transformative potential of cycling for personal growth Shows how bicycling and philosophy create the perfect tandem Includes a foreword by Lennard Zinn author and owner of Zinn Cycles Inc Investors Chronicle ,1997 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 Pharmacy on a Bicycle Eric G. Bing, Marc J. Epstein, 2013-05-06 Every four minutes over 50 children under the age of five die In the same four minutes 2 mothers lose their lives in childbirth Every year malaria kills nearly 1 2 million people despite the fact that it can be prevented with a mosquito net and treated for less than 1 50 Sadly this list goes on and on Millions are dying from diseases that we can easily and inexpensively prevent diagnose and treat Why Because even though we know exactly what people need we just can't get it to them They are dying not because we can't solve a medical problem but because we can't solve a logistics problem In this profoundly important book Eric G Bing and Marc J Epstein lay out a solution a new kind of bottom up health care that is delivered at the source We need microclinics micropharmacies and microentrepreneurs located in the remote hard to reach communities they serve By building a new model that scales down to train and incentivize all kinds of health care providers in their own villages and towns we can create an army of on site professionals who can prevent tragedy at a fraction of the cost of top down bureaucratic programs Bing and Epstein have seen the model work and they provide example after example of the extraordinary results it has achieved in Africa Asia and Latin America This is a book about taking health care the last mile sometimes literally to prevent widespread unnecessary and easily avoided death and suffering Pharmacy on a Bicycle shows how the same forces of innovation and entrepreneurship that work in first world business cultures can be unleashed to save the lives of millions The Reassembler James May, 2017-06-01 A typically Mayesque celebration of classic engineering May is extraordinarily good at explaining what a carburettor is or outlining how a governor works It's charming transfixing and surprisingly intimate It might be the best thing he's ever done Guardian review of BBC4 TV series Reassembly is merely a form of therapy something that stimulates a part of my brain that is left wanting in my daily life When I rebuild a bicycle I re-order my head So might you I'm delighted that you will be holding in your hands a book about putting things back together It's a subject that fascinates me but which I assumed was a lonely passion that I would take to the grave unconsummated by the normal channels of human interaction Welcome You and I we are not alone and our screwdrivers are our flashing Excaliburs as we sally forth to make small parts of the fragmented world whole again As in his hit BBC4 TV series as well as learning the history of the objects we get a history of the component parts As James rebuilds an engine he explains the cylinders what they are how they came about and what they do Arts in America: Art of the Native Americans, architecture, decorative arts, design, sculptures, art of the West Bernard Karpel, 1979
